Father William Turner, Pastor of St. Mary's Parish in Chelsea, offered the following invocation:

“God, source of all wisdom, Your statutes are good and gracious to us, and Your law is truth, guide and direct our state legislature, that by just and prudent laws, they may promote the well-being of our people.

You have charged us with the task of building on this earth a home where all nations may dwell in unity, liberty and peace. We pray for strength, that our government may be able to fulfill roles of service and responsibility, that they may seek justice, protect the weak, and lead us in the work of peace. Grant strength and courage that our elected officials are able to employ the principles of freedom, and ideals in the struggle for justice among all people. Through their work may barriers come down that could divide us and any spirit of hatred be ended.

In the midst of our complex and hurried lives, remind us of our simple roots. We give thanks to You for our nation. We commend our country to Your care at this time. Following Your guidance, may we bring an end to the evil of terrorism, so that all people may live in peace. Give to our President, our Governor, and to all in authority, the wisdom and strength to know Your will. Preserve and increase our liberties, and fashion into one nation, this people of many races. We pray today that You fill with the spirit of wisdom those we entrust to the authority of our state government. In time of prosperity, fill out hearts with thankfulness. In time of trouble, do not allow our trust in You to fail. Bless this place and these our elected servants! Amen.”

Rep. Jacobs moved that Reps. Bogardus, Daniels, Garza, Mans and Sheltroun be excused from today's session. The motion prevailed.
