Rev. Ricardo Bartlett, Pastor of New Greater St. Paul Church in the Greater Detroit area, offered the following invocation:

“To You, O God, be the glory for things Thou hast done. O gracious and Almighty God, Thou who hath created us and called us into existence. Thou who in Thy infinite wisdom has placed in us a soul that cannot rest until it rests in Thee. To You, O Creator, we come just now to acknowledge Your presence and humbly bow before Thee to seek Thy divine guidance for this august body of leaders. We are reminded in Thy word that if we ask, it shall be given; if we seek, we shall find; and if we knock, doors shall be opened unto us. Lord, we ask that a new spirit of unity, not sameness, permeate this group. Let them know that we are all one in Your Spirit, yet this oneness cannot be made manifest until we each attune ourselves to Thee. Lord, we further ask that each will be granted that undeniable courage and creative intellect that will cause them to boldly go forth to do the things that will transform hope into achievement, and will challenge them to move beyond mere perfunctory acts of lawmaking to serious legislation that will effectuate change—changes on the daily scene, change amidst our aged, change that will eradicate corruption in high places. Give aid to our youth, aid to the homeless, and have justice to truly roll down like a mighty stream. Lord, we knock at Your door of wisdom. Begin now to close the gaps in humanity so that we all may see sparks of divinity in each other. Then and only then will we be able to understand and appreciate and witness the joy, peace and contentment that Thou has promised. Let now the words of each person’s mouth and meditation of each person’s heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, our strength and our redeemer. Amen.”
