Senator Young’s statement is as follows:

I’d like to introduce to the body today an individual who graduated from Western Michigan University in 1978. He played football at Cornell University, however, I believe he switched from the big ball to the small ball for good reasons. He was a graduate of Richards High School in Oak Lawn, Illinois. He’s been recognized as a Sports Executive of the Year at the tenth annual March of Dimes National Athletic Awards dinner in 1998 at our own Fox Theatre in the city of Detroit.

In his twenty-fourth season of professional baseball, Mr. David Dombrowski joins the Tigers as the organization’s fifteenth president. Prior to joining the Tigers, however, he served as the Florida Marlins president and general manager. I believe those of us who follow baseball realize and know that he was the architect of the 1997 World Series champion Marlins, which Florida became the fastest expansion team to obtain a World Series title in only its fifth year.

He comes to us today, and he is also married. His wife—his lady’s name is Karie Ross, and they both have a son and a daughter, Darbi Rose and Landon Ronald. I would appreciate it if the chamber would recognize Mr. Dombrowski, who is also being joined by Miss Elaine Lewis, who is the vice president of Public Affairs and Strategic Planning for the Detroit Tigers organization. They are in the west Gallery, and I would appreciate it if they would both stand and have my members welcome them to the Senate today.
