Senate Bill 576 (Substitute S-1 as reported)
Sponsor: Senator Bob Emerson
Committee: Appropriations

CONTENT

This bill would amend the Public Health Code to increase various fees charged of health facilities for licensure, applications, and construction permits. The bill also would permit the Department of Consumer and Industry Services to charge a new fee for the licensure of substance abuse programs. Table 1 provides details on affected facilities.

The bill would sunset the fee increases on September 30, 2007. All fees would revert to current levels on that date.
