House Chamber, Lansing, Wednesday, July 28, 2004.

1:00 p.m.

The House was called to order by the Clerk.

The roll was called by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, who announced that a quorum was not present.

Mr. David D. Dickson, Jr., Sergeant at Arms, offered the following invocation:

“This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it. Heavenly Father, we thank You for this day. We thank You for raising us up this morning. We thank You, Lord, for all the things that we take for granted—breathing, walking, talking—all the pleasurable things that we do from day to day. We thank You, Lord, for these things. Lord, we thank You for the forgiveness of sin. We thank You for Your son Jesus that You sent for our salvation. Lord, we thank You for all the things that You bless us with from day to day. We also pray for the individuals who don’t have as much, be with them Lord, and comfort them. Lord, we thank You for this great state. We pray for our Governor, and we pray for this legislative body. We pray we will be here and make the correct decisions by Your will. In Your name, we pray. Amen.”

The Clerk declared the House adjourned until Thursday, July 29, at 10:00 a.m.
