Senate Bill 486 (as introduced 5-9-07)
Sponsor: Senator Wayne Kuipers
Committee: Health Policy

Date Completed: 5-29-07

CONTENT

The bill would amend Public Act 22 of 1971, which prescribes the age at which an individual may donate blood, to allow a person who was 16 years old to donate blood in a voluntary and noncompensatory blood program with his or her parent's or legal guardian's permission or authorization. The bill also would name the Act "Jenna's Law".

The Act allows an individual who is at least 17 years old to donate blood in a voluntary and noncompensatory blood program without obtaining his or her parent's or legal guardian's permission or authorization.
