Pastor David Powless of Warren Road Free Methodist Church of Westland offered the following invocation:

O Sovereign God, You are holy and You are just. You are majestic, all-knowing, and all-powerful. You are our Creator. You spoke and there was light. You spoke and there were the heaven and earth, and You are our Creator. You breathed into the dust of the ground and created man, so we thank You that You are the life-giver, and we thank You for life when You give it to us every day.

Father, I thank You that we live in a free country where we can travel anywhere, live anywhere, seek any career, and have access to clean water that so many countries do not have. I thank You for our system of government where we believe in the dignity and honor of every person, that we have the power to vote and to have a say. Even today in this assembly, we believe that we can start it with prayer not as token prayer, but because we seek the favor of God. I thank You for access to education that we can not only seek to better ourselves, but we want to be able to better other people's lives.

So I thank You for those here today who believe in Your holy Scripture that says it is more blessed to give than to receive. I ask Your favor today, Father, on these leaders as they make decisions for their communities and for their state. We understand that it is not about us, so I ask that You bring unity to this assembly for the sake of the people represented. Give them courage to make decisions that will make a difference for the people of this great state.

I am reminded of Your word which says: "If my people who call my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked way, I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sins and heal their land." O Father, I pray for healing today. I pray for economic healing. We need a revival in our economy in this state. Father, for the sake our children, bring healing morally. I pray also for a spiritual healing in this land.

Father, now, please give these leaders boldness today to make decisions not only for the people, but also to make decisions that will bring Your favor upon this assembly. Give them boldness to do things that please You for Your favor to be upon this land.

I pray this now in Your most holy, majestic, and powerful name. Amen.

The Assistant President pro tempore, Senator Hansen, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

I am here today to bid farewell and give all of our best wishes to a valuable and trusted member of the Senate Republican staff. Terry Marquardt is currently on a leave of absence from the Senate, but unfortunately, will not be coming back to us. He has accepted a position with the Secretary of State's office and will continue his service to the state in his new role. Joining us on the floor today are his wife Deb and two of his sons, Jonathon and Trevor. In the east Gallery are additional family members including Deb's parent and Terry's sister and her family.

Terry has lived nearly his entire life in Eaton County. After high school, he served in the United States Marine Corps, leaving with an honorable discharge in 1976. He came home to Eaton County and got involved in politics. He started working in the Legislature, joining the House Republican staff in 1987 and over the years has gone on to become a very well-liked and respected staff member. Terry has served many roles in both the Legislature and executive branch over the last 25 years. He has been chief of staff to two former Senators, Jon Cisky and Jud Gilbert, director of Republican Caucus Services in both the House and the Senate, and legislative liaison for the State Budget Office under Governor Engler.

Some of his political jobs have included deputy campaign manager for the Engler for Governor campaign and political director of the Michigan Republican Party. Most importantly, Terry was part of the team who came down to Monroe County and recruited me to run for State Representative.

He has four sons, Curtis, Derek, Jonathon, and Trevor. Terry will be greatly missed by me, this Republican Caucus, and every member of our staff. Our loss is truly Ruth Johnson's gain.

Colleagues, please join me in wishing Terry all the best as he moves on to a new job and new challenges.

Protest

Senator Gregory, under his constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the passage of House Bill No. 4724 and moved that the statement he made during the discussion of the bill be printed as his reasons for voting "no."

The motion prevailed.

Senator Gregory’s statement is as follows:

I rise in opposition to this bill. Whereas the bill involves replacement cost for lost or stolen Bridge Cards, I would be opposed to that as a rule. I wonder if the members understand truly what this bill is all about.

The whole issue of lost or stolen Bridge Cards is already in effect. The Department of Human Services deemed that they had the authority to implement this program some time ago, so it is already in effect. What this bill would do is it would put it into statute. My opposition to this is that if it is in statute, just as the department put it into effect, if they say that this is not working, or there is a better way of doing this, then now you can’t do that. You must come back to the Legislature and have us vote to take it back out of statute again. Right now it is something that the department feels they have the authority to do, which they do, and they have done so diligently.

I don’t agree that putting this into statute would help the department. It would only hinder them, handicap them. Actually, it would have the Legislature overseeing and doing things that the department should be doing. So I would ask my colleagues to re-evaluate this bill and consider the fact that it is already in effect. Even if we vote “no,” it is still being done. So I would ask all my colleagues to not take this step of putting this in statute, but leave it at the discretion of the department, and vote “no” on this bill.

Senate Resolution No. 161.

A resolution proclaiming July 11, 2012, as Srebrenica Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan and the week of July 11, 2012, as Bosnia and Herzegovina Tribute Week.

Whereas, Both the United States Senate and House of Representatives passed resolutions in 2005 acknowledging the genocide that the Serbian forces perpetrated in Srebrenica and all of Bosnia from 1992-1995; and

Whereas, July 11, 2012, is commemorated as the 17th anniversary of the Srebrenica genocide in which at least 8,372 innocent Bosniak civilians were summarily executed and 30,000 were expelled from their homes in the worst atrocity in Europe since the Holocaust; and

Whereas, This anniversary, together with this year's 20th anniversary since the beginning of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina, raises awareness of the tragic suffering of the Bosnian people and honors and remembers over 100,000 civilians who died as a result of the policies of ethnic cleansing and aggression in Bosnia and Herzegovina during the period of 1992-1995; and

Whereas, The Congress of North American Bosniaks (CNAB), the umbrella organization representing Bosniaks in the United States and Canada, requested this resolution; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan recognizes the importance of this event to bring closure for the Bosnian people through justice and truth; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we hereby proclaim July 11, 2012, as Srebrenica Remembrance Day and the week of July 11, 2012, as Bosnia and Herzegovina Tribute Week in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That we call upon all citizens to work toward ending the cycle of violence and promoting peaceful coexistence among all.

Senators Bieda, Booher, Brandenburg, Green, Hansen, Hopgood, Jansen, Kowall, Marleau, Nofs and Proos were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Emmons, Proos, Booher, Brandenburg, Green, Marleau, Rocca, Caswell, Colbeck, Schuitmaker, Moolenaar, Hildenbrand, Kowall, Gleason, Hunter, Hune, Robertson, Jones, Kahn, Meekhof, Gregory, Hood, Hopgood, Richardville, Nofs, Casperson, Jansen, Whitmer, Pavlov, Walker, Smith, Bieda, Young and Warren offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 162.

A resolution to declare June 12, 2012, as Dairy Foods Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The mission of the Michigan Dairy Foods Association is to support and promote activities designed to improve and maintain the general well-being of the dairy processing industry; and

Whereas, The Michigan Dairy Foods Association is a trade and membership service organization representing all aspects of the dairy processing industry in Michigan. The association's primary purposes are to assure that a strong environment exists for the creation and maintenance of sound public policy as it relates to all aspects of the dairy processing industry in Michigan; to enhance the position, prestige, and competitive ability of the association's members; and to provide educational programs to enhance members' abilities to process and market fine dairy products, packaged waters, and juices in Michigan and throughout the world; and

Whereas, Dairy Foods Awareness Day was established by the Michigan Dairy Foods Association to demonstrate the importance of the dairy processing industry in Michigan and to promote the 3-A-Day concept of three servings of calcium-rich dairy products per day, which helps ensure a healthy diet. We salute the people of the Michigan Dairy Foods Association for their efforts to expand our awareness and knowledge of the dairy processing industry; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body declare June 12, 2012, as Dairy Foods Awareness Day in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the organizers of Dairy Foods Awareness Day as evidence of our esteem.

Senators Anderson, Hansen and Pappageorge were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 11.

A concurrent resolution to memorialize Congress to adopt and present to the states for ratification an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to establish fundamental parental rights.

Whereas, The rights of parents to direct the upbringing and education of their children is a fundamental right that must be protected by the Constitution of the United States and the Michigan Constitution; and

Whereas, Our nation has historically relied first and foremost on parents to meet the real and constant needs of children; and

Whereas, The interests of children are best served when parents are free to make childrearing decisions about education, religion, and other areas of a child's life without state interference; and

Whereas, The United States Supreme Court in Wisconsin v. Yoder (1972) has held that "This primary role of the parents in the upbringing of their children is now established beyond debate as an enduring American tradition"; and

Whereas, However, the United States Supreme Court in Troxel v. Granville (2000) produced 6 different opinions on the nature and enforceability of parental rights under the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, This decision has created confusion and ambiguity about the fundamental nature of parental rights in the laws and society of several states; and

Whereas, A proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States (House Joint Resolution 3) has been introduced in the 112th Congress that would prevent erosion of the enduring American tradition of treating parental rights as fundamental rights:

Section One: The liberty of parents to direct the upbringing and education of their children is a fundamental right.

Section Two: Neither the United States nor any state shall infringe upon this right without demonstrating that its governmental interest as applied to the person is of the highest order and not otherwise served.

Section Three: No treaty may be adopted nor shall any source of international law be employed to supercede, modify, interpret, or apply to the rights guaranteed by this article.

; and

Whereas, This amendment would add explicit text to the Constitution of the United States to protect in perpetuity the rights of parents as they are now enjoyed, without substantive change to current state or federal laws respecting these rights; and

Whereas, Such enumeration of these rights in the text of our nation's constitution would preserve them from being infringed upon by the shifting ideologies and interpretations of the United States Supreme Court; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we memorialize Congress to adopt and present to the states for ratification an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to establish fundamental parental rights; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The House of Representatives has adopted the concurrent resolution.

Pursuant to rule 3.204, the concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Senators Brandenburg, Colbeck, Green, Hansen, Jansen, Marleau, Nofs and Proos were named co-sponsors of the concurrent resolution.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bieda's statement is as follows:

I had a constituent contact me on this, and I thought it would be an appropriate thing to put under Statements. Tomorrow is going to be Flag Day, just as a reminder to everybody that June 14 is a special holiday in the United States. Flag Day commemorates the adoption of the stars and stripes as the flag of the United States, and on June 14, 1777, the Second Continental Congress "Resolved, That the flag of the United States be made of thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing the new Constellation."

In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson officially established June 14 as Flag Day through proclamation. In August of 1949, Congress established National Flag Day. While Flag Day is not an official federal holiday, it is a great day to remember our humble beginnings as a nation and the great strides our nation has made. The flag has become a symbol not only of our nation, but also a symbol of government by the people.

I encourage you all to fly a flag tomorrow to commemorate the adoption of our national symbol.
