(3) The department of natural resources, on behalf of the state, after receiving the conveyance authorized in subsection (1), shall convey to the city of Gladwin, for consideration of $1.00, the real property described in subsection (1).

(4) The conveyance authorized by subsection (3) shall provide for all of the following:

(a) The property shall be used exclusively for public purposes, and if any fee, term, or condition for the use of the property is imposed on members of the public, or if any of those fees, terms, or conditions are waived for use of this property, resident and nonresident members of the public shall be subject to the same fees, terms, conditions, and waivers.

(b) In the event of activity inconsistent with subdivision (a), the state may reenter and repossess the property, terminating the grantee's estate in the property.

(c) If the grantee disputes the state's exercise of its right of reentry and fails to promptly deliver possession of the property to the state, the attorney general, on behalf of the state, may bring an action to quiet title to, and regain possession of, the property.

(d) If the state reenters and repossesses the property, the state shall not be liable to reimburse any party for any improvements made on the property.

(5) The state shall reserve oil, gas, and mineral rights to the property conveyed under this section.

(6) The conveyance of property under subsection (3) shall provide that the state reserves all aboriginal antiquities including mounds, earthworks, forts, burial and village sites, mines, and other relics, on, within, or under the property, with power to the state, and all others acting under its authority, to enter the property for any purpose related to exploring, excavating, and taking away aboriginal antiquities.

(7) The conveyance under subsection (3) shall be by quitclaim deed or other instrument approved by the attorney general.

Enacting section 1. Section 1 of 1983 PA 100 is repealed.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
