

Reps. Moss, LeBlanc, Farrington, Denby, Heise, Haugh, Knollenberg, Barnett, Brown, Darany, Geiss, Haines, Horn, Liss, Poleski, Segal, Slavens, Switalski, Talabi, Tlaib and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 272.

A resolution to declare May 17, 2012, as Chaldean American Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, One hundred thirty thousand Chaldeans, the largest population outside of Iraq, reside in the state of Michigan, and

Whereas, Chaldeans, since migrating to America during the 1920's, have continued to use their strong work ethic to contribute to the growth of Michigan through the establishment of more than 15,000 Chaldean-owned businesses across the state; and

Whereas, The Chaldean population has consistently proven their entrepreneurial spirit with nearly sixty percent of the community owning at least one business and eighty percent of all food stores in the Detroit area alone; and

Whereas, The population of Chaldean Americans continues to grow in the state of Michigan, since the Iraqi Chaldean refugees began migrating in search of better economic, political, and religious opportunities; and

Whereas, The Chaldean American community works to help the refugees adjust and become contributing citizens to the Great Lakes State through business, philosophy, language, and cuisine; and

Whereas, The Chaldean Community Foundation provides social services to more than 8,000 people annually at their Sterling Heights and Southfield offices by advancing the needs of the Chaldean American community and the communities in which they live and work through education, charitable giving, and advocacy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 17, 2012, as Chaldean American Day in the state of Michigan. We acknowledge the contributions of this innovative and entrepreneurial community as an important part of Michigan's diverse history; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce as evidence of the highest esteem of the members of the Michigan Legislature.
