Rep. Kenneth Kurtz, from the 58th District, offered the following invocation:

“Eternal God and Heavenly Father, we are grateful for this day, it is the day that You have made. May we rejoice and be glad in it as we share with one another, as we deal with those very important issues that affect our personal lives, the lives of our families, the lives of our communities and the lives of those within this great state. We thank You for Your mercy, Your love and Your care. We are especially thankful for the children that are here to observe this capitol and its functions. Grant to them safety and a very bright future here in this great state. As we deliberate, as we talk, as we share our opinions, might we be mindful that we are a people who desire to do the best around us.

In Jesus name I pray, Amen.”

Rep. Stamas moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today’s session. The motion prevailed.
