Fr. Eamon Kelly, Vice Chargé of the Pontifical Institute of the Notre Dame of Jerusalem Center in Jerusalem, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty Creator, Provident Lord, Heavenly Father, we come with the blessings of Jerusalem.

We thank You for the gift of life to all Your creatures, especially our brothers and sisters, from the tiniest and weakest to the strongest and apparently most influential!

We thank You for today, when we inherit so many talents from yesterday’s colleagues and prepare ourselves, our constituencies and entire State to serve our human family, here and all over the world.

Bless these State Legislators with a true spirit of service to the people they represent and build helpful bridges to all other communities around, near and far. Bless these Legislators and their families who often endure much duress during the electoral process and in fulfilling their terms.

We are blessed to enjoy strong connections with the lands of all the biblical stories which enrich our lives.

We ask You for wisdom to discern correctly the course toward brave and generous action needed to resolve the life-threatening needs of so many of our human family, affected by natural disasters, injustice, violence and human conflict.

In this week of the Jewish Succoth, we remember all those who are living precariously as refugees and in exile with upturned lives ... and we empathize and mobilize to help them practically so they can establish their families in peace.

We pray for the peace of Jerusalem and the whole world.”

House Resolution No. 165.

A resolution to declare October 2017 as Italian-American Heritage Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, In October of 1492, a three ship expedition lead by Christopher Columbus reached the shores of what he named San Salvator (now in the Bahamas). This voyage brought forth a new era of exploration and discovery in the New World. The American continents are named after an Italian, the explorer and geographer Amerigo Vespucci. As Columbus may have set forth his expedition under a Spanish flag, it is his Italian ancestry which is celebrated to this day; and

Whereas, Italian-Americans have defended the liberty and integrity of the United States since the Revolutionary War. Two of the original signers of the Declaration of Independence, William Paca and Caesar Rodney, and Filippo Mazzei, were of Italian decent; and

Whereas, Over 5.4 million Italians immigrated to the United States between 1820 and 1992. Today, there are over 26 million Americans of Italian descent in the United States, making them the fifth largest ethnic group; and

Whereas, Italian-Americans have and continue to make important contributions to the state of Michigan and our local communities. The bonds between the United States of America, the state of Michigan, and the Italian Republic have never been stronger; and

Whereas, Michigan Compiled Laws Section 425.101 recognizes the second Monday in October as Columbus Day in the state of Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 2017 as Italian-American Heritage Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That the House of Representatives reaffirms its commitment to celebrating the history and heritage of Columbus Day; and be it further

Resolved That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor of the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Lucido moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Whereas, An estimated 5.5 million Italians immigrated to the United States between 1820 and 2004. Today, there are over 18 million Americans of Italian descent in the United States, making them the fourth largest ethnic group; and

Whereas, Italian-Americans have and continue to make important contributions to the state of Michigan and our local communities. The bonds between the United States of America, the state of Michigan, and the Italian Republic have never been stronger; be it

Reps. Pagan, Allor, Brinks, Canfield, Chang, Chirkun, Clemente, Cochran, Elder, Ellison, Faris, Gay-Dagnogo, Geiss, Green, Greig, Guerra, Howrylak, Hughes, Jones, Kesto, Liberati, Marino, Maturen, Moss, Sabo, Schor, Sneller, Sowerby, Wittenberg, Yanez, Hoadley, Lasinski, Peterson and Scott offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 167.

A resolution to declare October 2017 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM) was launched nationwide in October 1987 as a way to connect and unite individuals and organizations working on domestic violence issues and raise awareness for those issues; and

Whereas, The coalition defines domestic violence as the willful intimidation, physical assault, battery, sexual assault, and/or other abusive behavior as part of a systematic pattern of power and control perpetrated by one intimate partner against another. It includes physical violence, sexual violence, psychological violence, and emotional abuse; and

Whereas, Domestic violence is an epidemic affecting individuals in every community regardless of age, economic status, sexual orientation, gender, race, religion, or nationality; and

Whereas, The devastating physical, emotional, and psychological consequences of domestic violence can cross generations and last a lifetime; and

Whereas, Unfortunately, statistics show that one in three women and one in four men have been victims of some form of physical violence by an intimate partner within their lifetime; and

Whereas, On a typical day, there are more than 20,000 phone calls placed to domestic violence hotlines nationwide and the presence of a gun in a domestic violence situation increases the risk of homicide by 500 percent; and

Whereas, Between 21-60 percent of victims of intimate partner violence lose their jobs due to reasons stemming from the abuse and victims of intimate partner violence lose a total of 8.0 million days of paid work each year; and

Whereas, Studies suggest that there is a relationship between intimate partner violence and depression and suicidal behavior; and

Whereas, According to the National Network to End Domestic Violence, many dynamics of power and control are rooted in gender roles and stereotypes. One way to combat these ingrained inequalities is through conscious action and education; and

Whereas, Throughout the last three decades, much progress has been made to support domestic violence victims and survivors and to hold abusers accountable; and

Whereas, Continued awareness, education, and action are crucial to prevention; and

Whereas, We must work together to educate our entire population about what can be done to prevent domestic violence, support the individual and unique needs of survivors, and ensure that survivors are not re-victimized; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 2017 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month in the state of Michigan. We strongly support the efforts of national, state, and local partners, and of every citizen to actively engage in public and private efforts to prevent domestic violence. We will take appropriate action and support one another to create a safer environment in order to help end domestic violence.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Whereas, Nearly 3 in 10 women (29%) and 1 in 10 men (10%) in the US have experienced physical violence, sexual violence and/or stalking by a partner resulting in injury, fear, concern for safety and/or needing services; and

Whereas, On a typical day, there are more than 20,000 phone calls placed to domestic violence hotlines nationwide and the presence of a gun in a domestic violence situation increases the risk of homicide by 500 percent; and
