“Holy God,

You rule the heavens, the stars, the seas, all creatures, and humankind from Your glorious throne in heaven. You bless us and give us what we truly need.

In Your goodness You choose men and women to help You rule and guide humankind’s earthly existence. In and through humanity, You make Your will come to be.

Bless and guide the good leaders You have chosen for our state. May their minds be curious, their ears listening, their hands open, and, above all, may their hearts be selfless and loving.

We ask You also to bless the citizens of Michigan. May we all do our part in making our state a good wholesome home. May the people always bless their leaders, pray for them and be open to their wisdom.

We thank You Lord for our beautiful state and for the privilege of calling it our home. We thank You for giving us wise, faithful and gentle leaders.

Pour Your wonderful Spirit on them today. May their work be fruitful.

Bless You and thank You Lord of all life.”

Rep. Phelps, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on this legislation because Michigan needs true citizen oversight of the DEQ and DEQ’s permitting process and these bills give corporations more oversight than regular people. I represent the City of Flint and our state government ignored the complaints and cries of Flint residents for 18 months before any action was taken. If Michigan had a true citizen oversight committee or commission the residents of Flint would have had another path to seek relief. Both the Governor and the Legislature created commissions to investigate the Flint Water Crisis and both commissions agreed that Michigan needed to restore the citizen oversight of the DEQ that was removed some 20 years ago. One of my colleagues remarked in his comments regarding this bill that corporations are people and that they should have a voice in what the DEQ does. I vote no on Senate Bills 652, 653, and 654 because I fundamentally believe that corporations are not people and these bills could amount to giving the fox the keys to the hen house.”
