Protests

Senators Bieda, Hood and Ananich, under their constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the passage of House Bill No. 6595.

Senators Bieda and Hood moved that the statements they made during the discussion of the bill be printed as their reasons for voting “no.”

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bieda’s statement is as follows:

I rise to offer my “no” vote explanation on House Bill No. 6595.

The foundation of democracy rests on the notion that voters have a say in electing lawmakers who represent their interests. But what happens when those lawmakers fail to deliver on the wishes of their constituents while in office? Surely there should be a way for voters to make their voices heard when their own lawmakers refuse to listen and that’s what we saw in the last election cycle. Voters have demanded for years that this body end unfair practice and gerrymandering, legalize the use of recreational marijuana, simplify overly burdensome voting requirements, raise the minimum wage, and provide paid sick leave for working people.

That’s why citizens took it upon themselves to use the only other avenue left to make the change they wished to see, and that was through referendum. A record number of voters told us loud and clear, “if you don’t listen to us, we’ll do the job for you.” Many of them spent their nights and weekends collecting signatures from their friends, family, and neighbors, and, for the first time in the state’s history, an initiative made it to the ballot without spending a single penny because voters were fed up with the current system of taxation without representation. So, to say I’m disappointed in this legislation is an understatement.

The sponsor of this legislation claims ultimately if something is put on the ballot, we can feel more confident that it has buy-in from a greater distribution of voters. Now, I agree, but we want as many people to have a say on these ballot initiatives, but that’s exactly why we put them on the ballot to begin with. More than seven million people get a chance to vote on each proposal on Election Day. I shouldn’t have to remind our elected officials how elections work. You’re trying to pass this bill because you don’t like how Michiganders voted. It’s almost 6 in the morning and we’re dealing with this.

This legislation appears to be nothing more than a power grab, meant to undermine the will of the voters and yet another reason why voters elected the people that they did at this last election to represent them going forward. This is a democracy, not a dictatorship. Taking power from the people is never ok. I urge you to vote “no” on House Bill No. 6593.

Senator Hood’s statement, in which Senator Ananich concurred, is as follows:

I rise to give my “no” vote explanation on this piece of legislation.

Quite simply, taking away a person’s opportunity to express how they feel through a ballot initiative, and this legislation says that once you reach the 15 percent in a congressional district, 15.1 percent doesn’t count. You must move to another congressional district. After you get 15 percent and you go to that next person, their desire to sign a petition and express their constitutional will is for naught. I think that should not be what we’re doing or should do.

Going a little bit simpler, in committee I asked one main question to be answered: How is this going to work? Right now, the ballot initiative petition is set up by county. It is not set up by congressional district. I asked people who testified and even asked the members of the committee to please explain to me how this is going to work. As I stand in front of you a day or so later, I still have not gotten that answer on how this is going to work. Ask yourself that question, if you’re going to do it by congressional district, it does not work like that. You’re putting and potentially going to pass a piece of legislation that just does not work physically. It just doesn’t work. The point in committee would be, Oh, well, we’ll move it along through the committee, and we’ll figure it out a little bit later. Well, here’s later and it still hasn’t been figured out. You’re about to pass a piece of legislation, or try to pass a piece of legislation, that doesn’t work.

So, what the heck are we doing? It’s just common sense, but I guess common sense is not just that common. It’s simple. Someone please explain to me how this is going to work. For those of you who support it, for those of you who want to pass it, please someone stand up and tell me how it’s going to work in its current form. It doesn’t work.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to create the legislative council; to prescribe its membership, powers, and duties; to create a legislative service bureau to provide staff services to the legislature and the council; to provide for operation of legislative parking facilities;

to create funds; to provide for the expenditure of appropriated funds by legislative council agencies; to authorize the sale of access to certain computerized data bases; to establish fees; to create the Michigan commission on uniform state laws; to create a law revision commission; to create a senate fiscal agency and a house fiscal agency; to create a Michigan capitol committee; to create a commission on intergovernmental relations; to prescribe the powers and duties of certain state agencies and departments; to repeal certain acts and parts of acts; and to repeal certain parts of this act on specific dates.”

The Senate agreed to the full title.

Pursuant to rule 1.306, Senator Bieda made the following statement.

Senator Bieda’s statement is as follows:

I rise to speak on this proposed elimination of the Capitol Committee in House Bill No. 6006.

As many of you know, I’ve been fortunate enough to serve on the Capitol Committee for the last 14 years and it’s been the honor of a lifetime to act as a guardian for this beautiful building for the lawmakers who use it every day to keep our state operating at its highest level. I look at it this way. We are just temporary tenants of this building and it is our job to relay any concerns to our landlords through the Capitol Committee.

However, while I strongly believe in the mission of the Capitol Committee, I’m also a firm believer in government transparency and ethics. I’ve introduced countless bills to shed light on our government while holding lawmakers accountable for potential conflicts of interest, campaign finance, and votes. In fact, Senate Rule 1.306 entitled “Disclosure and Disqualifications” clearly states, “A Senator having a personal, private, or professional interest in a bill or alternative measure, of which he or she has knowledge, shall not vote on the bill or alternative measure and shall disclose in writing his or her interest in the bill or alternative measure.”

While I may have been reading this a little broadly, it is fundamentally important that we follow the rules regarding conflicts of interest because our constituents should feel assured that we are voting with their best interests at heart. Many of my colleagues do, and I’d like to commend my colleague on the other side of the aisle from the 19th District for his commitment to these values. He served as a State Trooper for many years and he has always recused himself whenever a bill comes up that would affect their retirement plans. As legislators, we must set an example for future legislators to follow in our footsteps when it comes to upholding the integrity of this institution just like I did during my time on the Capitol Committee.

For that reason, I’m recusing myself from this vote because I currently serve as a member of the committee under consideration.
