99TH LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION OF 2018

Introduced by Senators MacGregor, Schmidt, Horn, Proos, Marleau, Zorn, Gregory, Conyers, Hansen and Brandenburg

ENROLLED SENATE BILL No. 511

AN ACT to create the Michigan first-time home buyer savings program; to provide for first-time home buyer savings accounts; to prescribe the powers and duties of certain state agencies, boards, and departments; to allow certain tax deductions; and to provide for penalties and remedies.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Sec. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the “Michigan first-time home buyer savings program act”.

Sec. 3. As used in this act:

(a) “Account holder” means an individual who establishes, individually or jointly with 1 or more other individuals, an account with a financial institution for which the account holder claims a first-time home buyer savings account status on his or her income tax return.

(b) “Allowable closing costs” means a disbursement listed on a settlement statement for the purchase of a single-family residence in this state by a qualified beneficiary.

(c) “Department” means the department of treasury.

(d) “Eligible costs” means the down payment and allowable closing costs for the purchase of a single-family residence in this state by a qualified beneficiary.

(e) "Financial institution" means any bank, trust company, savings institution, industrial loan association, consumer finance company, credit union, or any benefit association, insurance company, safe deposit company, money market mutual fund, broker, or similar entity authorized to do business in this state.

(f) "First-time home buyer" means an individual who is a resident of this state and has not owned or purchased, either individually or jointly, a single-family residence during a period of 3 years prior to the date of the purchase of a single-family residence.

(g) "First-time home buyer savings account" or "account" means an account with a financial institution that an account holder designates as a first-time home buyer savings account status on his or her income tax return pursuant to this act for the purpose of paying or reimbursing eligible costs for the purchase of a single-family residence in this state by a qualified beneficiary.

(h) "Principal residence" means that term as defined in section 7dd of the general property tax act, 1893 PA 206, MCL 211.7dd.

(i) "Program" means the first-time home buyer savings program established pursuant to this act.

(j) "Qualified beneficiary" means a first-time home buyer who is designated as the beneficiary of an account designated by the account holder as a first-time home buyer savings account.

(k) "Qualified withdrawal" means a withdrawal from an account that is not subject to a penalty under this act or taxation under the income tax act of 1967, 1967 PA 281, MCL 206.1 to 206.713, and that meets any of the following:

(i) A withdrawal from an account to pay the eligible costs of the qualified beneficiary incurred after the account is established.

(ii) A withdrawal made as the result of the death or disability of the qualified beneficiary of an account.

(l) "Settlement statement" means the statement of receipts and disbursements for a transaction related to real estate, including a statement prescribed under the real estate settlement procedures act of 1974 (RESPA), 12 USC 2601 to 2617, or an executed sales agreement for the purchase of a manufactured home being conveyed as personal property.

(m) "Single-family residence" means a single-family residence owned and occupied by a qualified beneficiary as the qualified beneficiary's principal residence. Single-family residence includes a manufactured home, trailer, mobile home, condominium unit, or cooperative.

(n) "Treasurer" means the state treasurer.

Sec. 5. (1) The first-time home buyer savings program is established in the department. The purposes, powers, and duties of the first-time home buyer savings program are vested in and shall be exercised by the treasurer or the designee of the treasurer.

(2) Beginning January 1, 2019 and through December 31, 2025, any individual may open an account with a financial institution and designate the account, in its entirety, as a first-time home buyer savings account to be used to pay or reimburse a qualified beneficiary's eligible costs for the purchase of a single-family residence in this state. An account holder shall designate a first-time home buyer as the qualified beneficiary of the first-time home buyer savings account. The account holder may designate himself or herself as the qualified beneficiary and may change the designated qualified beneficiary at any time, but there may not be more than 1 qualified beneficiary at any 1 time.

(3) An individual may jointly own a first-time home buyer savings account with another person if the joint account holders file a joint return under part 1 of the income tax act of 1967, 1967 PA 281, MCL 206.1 to 206.532. An individual may be the account holder of more than 1 first-time home buyer savings account. However, an account holder cannot have multiple accounts that designate the same qualified beneficiary. An individual may be designated as the qualified beneficiary on more than 1 first-time home buyer savings account.

(4) Only cash and marketable securities may be contributed to a first-time home buyer savings account. Subject to the limitation under section 11, persons other than the account holder may make contributions to a first-time home buyer savings account.

Sec. 7. (1) The account holder is responsible for the use or application of funds in a first-time home buyer savings account. The account holder shall not use funds held in an account to pay expenses of administering the account, except that a service fee may be deducted from the account by a financial institution in which the account is held. An account holder may withdraw funds, in whole or in part, from a first-time home buyer savings account and deposit the funds in a new first-time home buyer savings account held by a different financial institution or the same financial institution.

(2) An account holder shall submit, with the account holder's income tax return filed under part 1 of the income tax act of 1967, 1967 PA 281, MCL 206.1 to 206.532, all of the following to the department, on forms prescribed by the department:

(a) Detailed information regarding the first-time home buyer savings account, including a list of transactions for the account during the tax year.

(b) The Form 1099 issued by the financial institution for the account.

(c) Upon a withdrawal of funds from a first-time home buyer savings account, a detailed account of the eligible costs toward which the account funds were applied and a statement of the amount of funds remaining in the account, if any.

(3) The treasurer may promulgate rules to implement the program in accordance with the administrative procedures act of 1969, 1969 PA 306, MCL 24.201 to 24.328. The rules shall not apply to, or impose administrative, reporting, or other obligations or requirements on, financial institutions-related accounts for first-time home buyer savings accounts.

(4) The department shall prepare the following forms for each of the following to be filed with an income tax return filed under part 1 of the income tax act of 1967, 1967 PA 281, MCL 206.1 to 206.532, as required under subsection (2):

(a) The designation of an account with a financial institution to serve as a first-time home buyer savings account.

(b) The designation of a qualified beneficiary of a first-time home buyer savings account.

(c) To annually submit to the department detailed information regarding the first-time home buyer savings account, including, but not limited to, a list of transactions for the account during the tax year, and identifying any supporting documentation that is required to be maintained by the account holder.

(5) The department may prepare and distribute informational materials on the Michigan first-time home buyer savings program to financial institutions and potential home buyers to publicize the availability of the program.

Sec. 9. (1) A financial institution is not required to do any of the following:

(a) Designate an account as a first-time home buyer savings account, or designate the qualified beneficiaries of an account, in the financial institution's account contracts or systems or in any other way.

(b) Track the use of money withdrawn from a first-time home buyer savings account.

(c) Allocate funds in a first-time home buyer savings account among joint account holders or multiple qualified beneficiaries.

(d) Report any information to the department that is not otherwise required by law.

(2) A financial institution is not responsible or liable for any of the following:

(a) Determining or ensuring that an account satisfies the requirements to be a first-time home buyer savings account.

(b) Determining or ensuring that funds in a first-time home buyer savings account are used for eligible costs.

(c) Reporting or remitting taxes or penalties related to the use of a first-time home buyer savings account.

(3) Upon being furnished proof of the death of the account holder and any other information required by the contract governing the first-time home buyer savings account, a financial institution shall distribute the principal and accumulated interest or other income in the account in accordance with the terms of the contract governing the account.

Sec. 11. (1) The maximum account balance limit for a first-time home buyer savings account shall not exceed a maximum of $50,000.00. Accounts may continue to accrue earnings if the total balance has reached the maximum account balance limit and shall not be considered to have exceeded the maximum account balance limit under this subsection.

(2) Contributions to and interest earned on a first-time home buyer savings account are exempt from taxation as provided in section 30 of the income tax act of 1967, 1967 PA 281, MCL 206.30.

(3) Qualified withdrawals made from first-time home buyer savings accounts are exempt from taxation as provided in section 30 of the income tax act of 1967, 1967 PA 281, MCL 206.30.

Sec. 13. (1) If funds are withdrawn from an account for any purpose other than the payment of eligible costs by or on behalf of a qualified beneficiary, there is a penalty equal to 10% of the amount withdrawn. The penalty shall be paid to the department.

(2) The penalty does not apply if the funds withdrawn satisfy any of the following:

(a) Withdrawn by reason of the qualified beneficiary's death or disability.

(b) A disbursement of assets of the account pursuant to a filing for protection under the United States bankruptcy code, 11 USC 101 to 1330.

(c) Transferred from an account established pursuant to this act into another account established pursuant to this act for the benefit of another qualified beneficiary as provided in section 7.

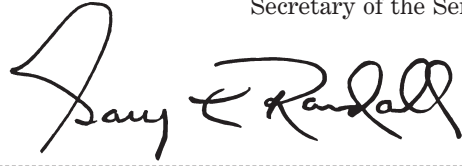

Enacting section 1. This act takes effect January 1, 2019.

Enacting section 2. This act does not take effect unless Senate Bill No. 512 of the 99th Legislature is enacted into law.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
