Rev. Douglas R. Nettleton, member of Lake Michigan Presbytery in Portage, offered the following invocation:

“Eternal God, Maker of Heaven and Earth, we give You thanks this day for Your creation: the air we breathe; the water of the Great Lakes; the rivers that flow through this State. We give You thanks for the plants and animals and fish that populate the rivers and forest of this great state of Michigan. We give You thanks for the diversity of industry and farms and cities and towns and peoples that fill this State with energy, intelligence, imagination and love. Help us be good stewards of this land and people. Open us up to conversation and debate as we enact legislation for the common good to protect this land and people. Help us to enter into a relationship with one another and the citizens of this State with open minds. Help us seek truth beyond self-interest and to make this State a place of freedom, equality with justice and liberty for all. Teach us to regard no one better than another and to find the good in all. Help us to set aside partisanship and to work together in ways that transcend party and self-aggrandizement. Help us in our personal and common life together model the ethics and justice of the Constitution of this land. When we differ with one another let it be with civility. When we stray from the path that has brought us here lead us back to Your Truth by acknowledging our mistakes. Give us courage to act honestly and openly and let transparency and truth telling be the order of the day. Eternal God, thank You for entrusting to us the responsibility of governance. Help us to do so with humility, kindness and justice for all. Amen.”

Rep. Rabhi moved that Rep. Whitsett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Whereas, Of these many recommendations, the report looked at addressing treatment and prevention in our jails and judicial system, training for individuals to recognize a mental health crises, expanding opportunities for individuals to be connected with care, filling the shortage of mental health providers, delivering care early to adolescents, and ensuring our veterans are connected with services; and

Whereas, The Michigan House of Representatives will continue to reduce the stigmatization of mental illness and work toward providing quality services to those that are living with mental health disorders and addictions; now, therefore, be it

Whereas, In Michigan, there are nearly 13,000 children and youths in the foster care system who are being provided a safe, secure, and stable home environment along with the compassion and nurturing of a foster or relative foster family; and

Whereas, Foster families open their homes and hearts to children whose families are in crisis and thus they play a vital role in helping children and families heal, reconnect, and launch children into successful adulthood; and

Whereas, Dedicated foster families frequently adopt foster children resulting in a continual need for more foster families; and

Whereas, Foster Care Awareness Month in the state of Michigan is an appropriate opportunity to thank the families who embrace the often thankless responsibility of providing a home and family to children in need of affection, love, and security, and to support the efforts of those who dedicate their time to children in and leaving foster care; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan and the United States of America have been enriched by the contributions of Asian Pacific Americans in all facets of life, including the arts, sciences, business, education, and philanthropy. Michigan has recognized the contribution Asian Pacific Americans and other immigrants make to our economy with the establishment of the Michigan Office for New Americans; and
