Rev. Joshua Hossler, Lead Pastor of Evident Church in Chesterfield, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father,

I thank You for these women and men who have given their lives to public service. Thank You for their tireless hours, thankless days, and continuous hard work for the greater good of our great state. I pray You will bless them for their efforts and give them the strength they need for what You have called them to.

In these hours, we pray for supernatural unity among this body of leaders, because when we come together we truly are better.

We pray for genuine love because we know hatred divides but love unifies.

We pray for selflessness and humility, because pride and selfishness will be our downfall.

We pray for courage, because to lead requires at times that we stand alone.

We pray for wisdom, because we recognize in and of ourselves we do not have all the answers. We need You.

We pray that You will continue to lead us into a greater future of justice, freedom, and well-being for everyone. And above all a future that turns more of our hearts toward each other and toward You.

We thank You for Your constant undeserved grace, guidance, and unending love.

We pray all of this in Your Son’s name, amen!”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Cole moved that Rep. Inman be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Wittenberg, Berman, Crawford, Ellison, Garza, Haadsma, Kuppa, Lasinski, Sowerby and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 108.

A resolution to support the United States’ relationship with the State of Israel and the Middle East peace process and to call on the President and Congress of the United States to continue policies supporting this relationship.

Whereas, As a nation and a people, Israel exemplifies the essence of the will to live and achieve, courage and perseverance in the face of many obstacles, and dedication to democracy and heritage; and

Whereas, Israel and the United States are key allies bound closely by historic and cultural ties, shared values, and governments committed to democracy, justice, human rights, and freedoms, as well as by mutual interests including science, politics, bilateral counterterrorism, and education; and

Whereas, Since Israel’s founding in 1948, Congress has repeatedly expressed the United States’ unwavering commitment to the security of Israel as a Jewish and democratic state through economic and security assistance and partnerships and other actions; and

Whereas, Supporting the U.S.-Israel relationship is a bipartisan issue, as the continuation and strengthening of that relationship is clearly in our nation’s best national interest; and

Whereas, Cooperation between Israel and the United States is of great importance, especially in the context of rising anti-Semitism, authoritarianism, and security problems in Europe, the Middle East, and North Africa; and

Whereas, American policy has long sought peace to the Middle East and recognized that both the Israeli and Palestinian people should be able to live in safe and sovereign states, free from fear and violence, with mutual recognition; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan shares this commitment to a strong relationship with Israel. In January 2017, Michigan became the 16th state to enact laws condemning and outlawing discrimination against Israel and Israelis. The state and organizations within the state have made efforts to strengthen business ties between Michigan’s automotive and defense industries and Israel’s innovation and technical expertise; and

Whereas, Additional programs and partnerships between Michigan’s and Israel’s institutions and residents continue to benefit both parties. Michigan universities, such as the University of Michigan, have partnered with universities in Israel, including Ben Gurion University in the Negev and Technion Institute of Technology, to support and foster research, innovation, and collaboration. Programs have consistently brought members of the Michigan Jewish community to Israel and Israelis to Michigan to create new relationships and strengthen Jewish identity; and

Whereas, The potential for greater cooperation with Israel for the benefit of Michigan is unlimited but depends on continuing and strengthening the relationship between the United States and Israel; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we encourage continuing support for the relationship of the United States and Michigan to Israel, the Middle East peace process, and Israel's right to exist and defend itself; and be it further

Resolved, That we call on the President and Congress of the United States to continue the mutually beneficial, bipartisan policies which enhance the economic stability and security of the State of Israel; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. Kennedy, Brixie, Hope, Koleszar, Pohutsky, Camilleri, Pagan, Guerra, Manoogian, Elder, Hoadley, Cherry, Tyrone Carter, Ellison, Liberati, Yancey, Lasinski, Witwer, Stone, Bolden, Kuppa, Brenda Carter, Hood, Love, LaGrand, Whitsett, Anthony, Garza, Haadsma, Sabo, Sneller, Sowerby and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 109.

A resolution to declare May 22, 2019, as Equal Rights Advocacy Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The state of Michigan supports equal rights for all who live, study, work, and visit our Great Lakes state; and

Whereas, The Michigan Constitution does not explicitly guarantee that all rights it protects are held equally by all without regard to gender; and

Whereas, Laws prohibiting gender discrimination that exist today can be repealed or reduced by a simple majority in the legislature; and

Whereas, Michigan ratified the federal Equal Rights Amendment on May 22, 1972, and yet still does not have gender equality guaranteed in its own state constitution; and

Whereas, Thirty-seven of the 38 states ratified the Equal Rights Amendment. Without ratification, the United States Constitution fails to guarantee female citizens equal rights and equal justice; and

Whereas, An Equal Rights Amendment would help correct systemic gender discrimination that is widespread and pervasive; and

Whereas, Many women have dedicated their entire lives for a constitutional amendment affirming that women had equal rights and protections under the United States Constitution; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 22, 2019, as Equal Rights Advocacy Day in the state of Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.
