Pastor Matt Rohde, Pastor of Springport Bible Church in Springport, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Lord and heavenly father. We lift up the great state of Michigan and the leaders in this room in Jesus name. Lord we bind and rebuke any and all corruption right now. We break the power of the enemy in the name of Jesus so that we may live a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and honesty. Lord we ask that skillful and godly wisdom will enter and overflow in the heart of all of the leaders in this room. We pray that knowledge shall be pleasant to them, that discretion will watch over them, And that understanding will keep those in authority and places of leadership and deliver them from the ways of evil. We declare that the upright shall dwell in the government. That men and women of integrity blameless and complete in Your site shall remain in their positions. We declare that the wicked shall be cut off and that fraud or treachery shall be rooted out in Jesus name. Lord we ask that You bind the works of the wicked and have them removed from among the good. We declare that loving kindness and mercy, truth, and faithfulness preserve those in authority and their offices. Like a river, Lord we ask that You direct the decisions made by the leadership in this room. We ask that the honest and just men and women in authority have discernment, understanding, and knowledge so that they remain in their positions for long durations and that the state in which we reside will remain stable. We declare that the righteous will be in authority in the state of Michigan and that their offices shall be established and made secure by righteousness. We thank You for Your truth and bind any plans to stop Your good news from being spread to those in the state of Michigan. And last of all Lord I pray for civility and understanding as things are discussed and voted upon in this room. The word of God instructs us that we are to love God and love people. Even though we might disagree with each-other let us still show respect and love for one another. In Your heavenly holy name we pray Amen.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Hornberger to the Chair.

Rep. Rabhi moved that Rep. Pagan be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 206 out of numerical order.

Reps. Anthony, Garza, Kuppa, Sowerby and Witwer offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 206.

A resolution to declare December 10-17, 2019, as International Human Rights Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On December 10th, 1948, the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as an affirmation of each person's right to life and liberty, freedom from slavery and torture, freedom of opinion and expression, and the right to work and education. Throughout the years, the definition of human rights has expanded to encompass the way we treat groups who have historically had their rights oppressed and are now legally protected from discrimination—including women, children, persons with disabilities, and racial and ethnic minorities; and

Whereas, World leaders for peace, like the United States, have a moral imperative to meet the needs of the most vulnerable, including victims of human trafficking and forced marriage, and refugees; and

Whereas, Education and workforce development programs are fundamental components for a stable economic future, especially for those who are struggling to find their footing and seeking a more promising future. This week is observed to urge a commitment to providing each person with the tools they need to pursue and complete a post-secondary education or skilled trade credential; and

Whereas, By 2020, 65 percent of all jobs will require some level of postsecondary degree, yet only 44% of Michiganders will have this credential. This goal is harder to obtain for vulnerable populations, especially those struggling with barriers posed by language differences, financial barriers, or the effects of trauma. Agencies such as the Michigan Office of New American Rights and Michigan Works! have continually demonstrated this ideal by offering resettlement and wraparound support services to prepare Michiganders to participate in the workforce; and

Whereas, Through adoption of this resolution, the members of this body pledge our commitment to equality, justice, and dignity beyond all differences in culture, religion, opportunity, or race; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare December 10-17, 2019, as International Human Rights Week in the state of Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education.

Reps. Cambensy, Markkanen, Gay-Dagnogo, Kuppa, Crawford, Hertel, Cherry, Elder, Haadsma, Robinson, Byrd, Yancey, Kennedy, Stone, Cynthia Johnson, Garza, Liberati, Tyrone Carter, Shannon, Bolden, Koleszar, Sowerby, Lasinski, Camilleri, Warren, Sabo, Chirkun, LaFave, Marino, Rabhi, Jones, Love, Kahle and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 207.

A resolution to commemorate December 14, 2019, as the 183rd birthday of the Upper Peninsula in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Before Michigan statehood, there existed a dispute between officials in the territory of Michigan and state of Ohio over the rightful claim to land known as the Toledo Strip; and

Whereas, In 1836, federal legislation was enacted, signed into law by President Andrew Jackson, that established the boundaries of the new state of Michigan, granting the Toledo Strip to the state of Ohio and granting the entire area now known as the Upper Peninsula to the state of Michigan. In enacting the legislation, Congress established a final condition before Michigan statehood—"the assent of a convention of delegates elected by the people" of Michigan to the proposed boundaries; and

Whereas, The first convention of delegates that assembled in Michigan in September of 1836 rejected the boundaries proposed by Congress, declaring it an injustice that the boundaries included the Upper Peninsula instead of Toledo; and

Whereas, Fortunately, a new convention of delegates was quickly assembled by Michigan territorial governor Stevens T. Mason in Ann Arbor. On December 14, 1836, in what is now known as the Frostbitten Convention because of the cold temperatures that day, the gathering unanimously agreed to the boundaries as set by Congress, thereby meeting the final condition for statehood and ensuring that Michigan state boundaries would include the entirety of the Upper Peninsula; and

Whereas, On January 26, 1837, with the assent of the convention of delegates received, Michigan became the 26th state in the union, without the approximately 500 square miles of the Toledo Strip but with the approximately 16,500 square miles of the beautiful and resource-rich Upper Peninsula; and

Whereas, On September 9, 2016, more than one hundred citizens and historians gathered at the Sonderegger Symposium XVI, sponsored by the Center for Upper Peninsula Studies at Northern Michigan University, and unanimously agreed to a resolution declaring December 14, the date of the Frostbitten Convention, as the official birthday of the Upper Peninsula; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate December 14, 2019, as the 183rd birthday of the Upper Peninsula in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Marquette Regional History Center and the Peter White Public Library.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 205.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Richard Ball, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, It is with great sadness that the members of this legislative body learned of the passing of Richard “Dick” Ball. Throughout his three terms of service, he was a dedicated public servant who worked tirelessly for his constituents in the 85th House District and the entire state of Michigan; and

Whereas, A native of Owosso, Richard Ball attended the Ohio State University where he graduated with a bachelor of science degree in optometry. After serving in the U.S. Army, he returned to Ohio State University to earn a master’s degree in physiological optics. He joined his father’s optometric practice, first established in 1916, and continued his education to earn a doctoral degree in experimental visual psychology from Michigan State University. Dr. Ball established a distinguished career with many notable accomplishments as an optometrist and professor at Michigan State University; and

Whereas, Richard Ball was first elected to the House of Representatives in 2004, serving his constituents in Shiawassee and Clinton counties for six years. Representative Ball brought valuable professional and community experience to this legislative body on a range of issues, focusing many of his efforts on health, agriculture, and occupational issues. He held leadership positions in multiple committees, serving as the vice chair and minority vice chair of the Committee on Agriculture and the minority vice chair of the Committee on Senior Health, Security and Retirement. He was also an active member of the committees on Education, Health Policy, and Insurance. A true statesman, he was known for his willingness to reach across the aisle to find solutions to the divisive budget deficits of the late 2000s. After leaving the House of Representatives, Richard Ball returned to his career in optometry in 2011; and

Whereas, He lived a life committed to his community, serving for 16 years as a member of the Owosso School Board and 9 years on the Shiawassee County Health Board. He was also a member of state and national optometry associations in which he held numerous professional leadership positions. His lifetime of contributions has earned him recognition and great respect from his professional peers and legislative colleagues; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Richard Ball, a member of this legislative body from 2005 to 2010; and be it further
