Rep. Aaron Miller, from the 59th District, offered the following invocation:

“Our heavenly Father, we thank You for smiling down on us today, as we don’t do often enough. Lord, we just want to say thank You for the blessings that we have. We ought to count our blessings each and every day that You have given us. Lord, we always say that we are here for such a time as this and as human beings we so often say that for our own purposes. We want Your will to match our will and we want Your ways to match what we have designed in our ways. That’s not what we’re taught Lord, we are taught to be patient and wait on the Lord. We are definitely taught that Your ways are higher than our ways and we recognize that. We just thank You for another day in which we are able to be here. I thank You for all my colleagues, thank You for the friends we have made here and for the experiences we have shared together, may they not be forgotten, but may they contribute to a lesson learned, whether the hard way or for the better. Lord, may we work together for the betterment of this state as so many have said before me, bless today, bless today’s proceedings and all who are here and bless us as we come and go. In Jesus name we pray, amen.”

Rep. Cole moved that Rep. Marino be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Messages from the Senate

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 35.

A concurrent resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Raymond M. Murphy, former member of the House of Representatives and Senate.

Whereas, It was with great sorrow that the members of the Legislature learned about the passing of Raymond M. Murphy. He will be remembered as a dedicated public servant by his constituents in Southeast Michigan and the people of the state of Michigan; and

Whereas, A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Raymond M. Murphy attended the Detroit Institute of Technology and Wayne State University before beginning his long career serving the people of Michigan in many capacities. Politically active at a young age, he held a variety of leadership positions in the Democratic Party, was a former aide to Congressman Charles Diggs, and a 1961–1962 Constitutional Convention delegate, contributing to the landmark governing document of our state, the Constitution of the State of Michigan of 1963. A long-time officer of the court in Detroit, Raymond M. Murphy continued serving his community through long-standing involvement in a host of civic organizations and initiatives; and

Whereas, Raymond Murphy was first elected to the Michigan House of Representatives in 1982 where he served until he was elected to the Michigan Senate in 1998. Over the course of two decades as a lawmaker, Raymond M. Murphy took on many leadership positions, including serving as chair of the Labor and Occupational Safety Committee, Assistant Democratic Floor Leader, and Speaker Pro Tempore. In the Senate, Raymond Murphy served on a variety of committees, including the Appropriations Committee. He served as Minority Whip from 1999 to 2000 and Assistant Minority Floor Leader from 2001 to 2002. In addition, he was a member of the NCSL National Black Caucus of State Legislators and the Michigan Legislative Black Caucus. To each of these responsibilities, Raymond M. Murphy brought an abundant understanding of the process and institutions of government, which provided an invaluable example for others to follow. Raymond M. Murphy also distinguished himself through his efforts on a variety of special projects, including the study and promotion of high-speed rail transportation; and

Whereas, Raymond M. Murphy leaves behind a legacy as a passionate advocate for the people of Michigan, and his dedication remains an example for those who have followed him into public service. He also will be remembered as a family man as he demonstrated a deep commitment to his wife, Lynette, and eight children. May his family take some solace that his efforts will long continue to enrich our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Raymond M. Murphy, a member of the House of Representatives from 1983 to 1998 and the Senate from 1999 to 2002; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Murphy family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

The concurrent resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

The Speaker and the entire membership of the House of Representatives were named co-sponsors of the concurrent resolution.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Hornberger to the Chair.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Alexander, Griffin, Rendon, Allor, Chirkun and Crawford offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 343.

A resolution to remind state employees of whistleblower protections and encourage them to come forward if they have knowledge of any irregularities or illegal or suspect behavior.

Whereas, Ensuring public confidence in government requires that individuals and agencies which violate the law are identified and held accountable. The strongest bulwarks against illegal, corrupt, and incompetent actions are state employees who report instances of wrongdoing by superiors and colleagues; and

Whereas, State law affords substantial protections to state employees who report violations or suspected violations of laws or rules. Section 2 of the Whistleblowers' Protection Act, 1980 PA 469, MCL 15.361 et seq., states:

An employer shall not discharge, threaten, or otherwise discriminate against an employee regarding the employee's compensation, terms, conditions, location, or privileges of employment because the employee, or a person acting on behalf of the employee, reports or is about to report, verbally or in writing, a violation or a suspected violation of a law or regulation or rule promulgated pursuant to law of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States to a public body, unless the employee knows that the report is false, or because an employee is requested by a public body to participate in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry held by that public body, or a court action.

Civil Service Commission rules, specifically Rule 2-10.1 through Rule 2-10.3, establish similar protections prohibiting reprisal against whistleblowers; and

Whereas, Michigan courts have interpreted the Whistleblowers' Protection Act and civil service protections broadly. The purpose of the law and rules is to expose fraud and corruption in government and state employees should feel confident that the law is on their side and will protect them if the state attempts to take retaliatory action against them for reporting wrongdoing; and

Whereas, The 100th Legislature has taken steps to further enhance protections offered to state employees, most notably the passage of Senate Bill 686, which would have prohibited a state department or agency from taking disciplinary action against certain state employees for communicating with certain individuals in the legislative branch; and

Whereas, The Governor's veto of Senate Bill 686 demonstrated a lack of regard for good government practices, failing to further expand safeguards for state employees interested in protecting the interests of the people of this state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we remind state employees of whistleblower protections and encourage them to come forward if they have knowledge of any irregularities or illegal or suspect behavior; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor and the members of the Civil Service Commission.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Cole moved that consideration of the resolution be postponed temporarily.

The motion prevailed.

Reps. Shannon, Chirkun, Garza, Haadsma, Cynthia Johnson, Kuppa, Sneller, Sowerby and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 344.

A resolution to urge the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services to prioritize educators, school administrators, and school employees for receiving the COVID-19 vaccine.

Whereas, The COVID-19 Pandemic has upended nearly every aspect of the lives of people in Michigan and countries across the world. It has caused a devastating loss of life and has struck a blow to our schools, communities, and the economy; and

Whereas, The development of COVID-19 vaccines is a beacon of hope that offers the possibility of returning to a world free from the concern that providing in-person education to our children will spread the deadly virus; and

Whereas, The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) is responsible for the distribution of COVID-19 vaccines in the state of Michigan. MDHHS has outlined a phased approach for the distribution of vaccines beginning with hospitals, health care workers, and vulnerable populations. Following the initial distribution, the Division of Immunization within MDHHS will identify the populations considered essential personnel, including grocery and food distribution workers, healthcare workers not immunized during phase 1, high risk populations, and other critical populations; and

Whereas, Many communities are pushing for schools to commence in-person learning as soon as possible. Increasing evidence suggests that in-person learning is far superior to remote learning. The American Academy of Pediatrics has stated that children not only learn best when physically in the classroom, but they also receive numerous other benefits, including learning social and emotional skills, receiving healthy meals, and accessing mental health services. In addition, remote learning has been shown to exacerbate existing inequalities, as different communities have unequal access to the internet and other technologies that are required for remote learning. Remote learning also puts a strain on working parents, which has devastating ripple effects for our economy; and

Whereas, In order to safely commence in-person learning, educators and school administrators must receive the COVID-19 vaccine. Nearly a third of the educator workforce nationally is over the age of 55, while another quarter has existing medical issues that place them at higher risk for a more serious infection. In addition, because children are more likely to be asymptomatic, the risk of exposure for educators and school personnel may be higher due to the silent spread of the virus. The risk of exposure is heightened even further as many schools are opening without adequate resources, such as personal protective equipment; and

Whereas, Several education groups, including the National Education Association, the School Superintendents Association, and the American Federation of Teachers, have already urged the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to give adults in school systems priority for vaccinations. They argue that this is not only critical to fully reopening school buildings for instruction, but doing so will generate trust in the vaccination program with the education community serving as a “trusted messenger”; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services to prioritize educators, school administrators, and school employees for receiving the COVID-19 vaccine; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor and the Director of the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Larry Inman.

Whereas, We recognize Representative Larry Inman as his service to this legislative body draws to a close. Representative Inman worked hard on behalf of the people of the One Hundred-Fourth District and our state; and and Whereas, Representative Inman had a long history of public service and private-sector experience prior to his election to the House in 2014. He earned an associate's degree from Northwestern Michigan College and a bachelor's degree from Northern Michigan University and later worked in banking. He spent more than two decades on the Grand Traverse County Board of Commissioners. Whereas, James Lower received a bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan State University and a master's degree in business administration from Grand Valley State University. He worked as a staff member in the Legislature and as executive director for a consulting firm. His public service includes time as vice chair of the Ionia County Commission and as the manager of Edmore Village. This varied education and experience prepared him for his time in the Legislature; and

Whereas, Elected in 2016 and 2018, Representative Lower's two terms of service in this body were marked by diligence and determination. His leadership was displayed as chair of the Local Government and Municipal Finance Committee and as vice chair of the Tax Policy Committee. He was also an engaged member of the Energy Policy, Health Policy, and Communications and Technology committees. His legislative work extended to ushering in laws on retirement, occupational licensing, and taxation, among other areas; now, therefore, be it

A concurrent resolution to remind state employees of whistleblower protections and encourage them to come forward if they have knowledge of any irregularities or illegal or suspect behavior.

Reps. Slagh, Crawford and Rendon offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 352.

A resolution to urge the Attorney General to fulfill her duties to uphold the laws of the state of Michigan and take legal action against those who have violated election laws.

Whereas, Free and fair elections conducted according to the law are imperative in our country. Any sense of unresolved improprieties in an election undermines the results and public trust in our government; and

Whereas, Numerous troubling allegations have been made concerning voter fraud and other violations of law in connection with the November 2020 election. During legislative testimony, it was reported that a review of absent voter records showed that numerous deceased persons voted and there were voters registered with addresses to vacant parcels and uninhabited buildings. Some poll challengers testified that they were prevented from fully viewing and taking part in the ballot duplication process, in direct violation of a court order. Affidavits have also been filed by a significant number of poll challengers who attest that they were harassed, threatened, and intimidated by election workers and others who were observing the election process. Allegations have been made that some election workers coached voters on who to vote for. Additionally, there are specific allegations that election workers were told by their superiors to accept absentee ballots with signatures that did not match the signatures on file in voting records; and

Whereas, Any cases of election fraud or other violations of election law must be investigated fully and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. The integrity of the November 2020 election and future elections requires determined, judicious enforcement of the law; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Attorney General to fulfill her duties to uphold the laws of the state of Michigan and take legal action against those who have violated election laws; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Attorney General.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Vaupel:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. Thank you Colleagues for allowing me to share my thoughts, memories and thank you.

When I came here 6 years ago I did not know what to expect. Like all of you I had heard about the crooked politicians, the power hungry politicians and the greedy politicians. I found dedicated hard working public servants.

I had heard about the self serving Bureaucrats who were protecting their jobs and building their fiefdoms. I found dedicated hard working public servants.

I had heard about less than ambitious government employees at all levels. I found dedicated hard working public servants.

I had heard about the greedy special interests. I found many organizations trying to better themselves to provide better service and product to consumers.

I had heard about the unscrupulous Lobbyists. I found people advocating for the groups they represent. Going to really miss some of you.

I had heard of the biased media. I found people reporting what they observed. What they observed through their eyes, through their glasses and sometimes I thought maybe looking through beer goggles.

To shorten this up I found very Competent, Professional, Dedicated people at every level in this process called Government.

I would like to Thank everyone I've had the honor to work with starting with my wife Cathy who has tolerated my hours and excuses for the past 6 years. Always helping to feel better when things hadn't gone well by saying 'You're not really dumb, you just have some bad luck thinking' With a little luck and understanding we will make it to our 50 year anniversary in January.

I would like to thank Former State Rep. Cindy Denby, who has been the legislative director in our office for all 6 years. And also thank all the staff who have been in our office over these years. Starting with Sue Dolato and Caleb Jenkins and currently Annie Nguyen is at our front desk.

I have had the honor of serving with 3 outstanding Speakers, Kevin Cotter, Tom Leonard and Lee Chatfield. Thank you for your Leadership.

To Clerks Randall and Brown, to Chief Dickson and all the Sargents, to all of the Policy advisors, Clerks, to Joelle and especially to Alice—Thank you for the Professional and Dedicated way that you keep this process going. Thank you to all who keep this beautiful Building beautiful.

Last week Representative Crawford opined on seating. As the oldest Male member in the legislature I would like to echo those sentiments. It is very reassuring to sit next to a medic who checks for a pulse every time I doze off, to have a nurse in front of me, just in case, and to have Cathy Crawford in front of me to keep things in perspective when things aren't going smoothly. (also to offer Comic Relief).

This year especially with Covid has been a challenge. This has been a year that due to the pandemic we have not always known what the next day or hour would bring and as we traveled this journey I was often reminded what my grandfather used to tell me when things weren't going well and the future wasn't clear Keep calm and 'Don't worry about the mule going blind just keep loading the wagon'.

There were 2 things that I deeply believed when I entered the legislature that I thought would be seriously challenged. I was wrong. They were not challenged but strengthened.

That you love the Lord your God with all your heart and all your soul and all your mind' and 'That you love your neighbors as yourself'.

Thank you to all those that make this process of government work.

And 'Don't worry about the mule going blind Just keep loading the wagon'."

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Miller:

“Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Well, folks, it certainly has been a crazy year. I realize now that I’m to blame for all the craziness, coronavirus and all. You see, about Christmas time last year, I told Alex, ‘You know what? This is going to be a nice easy last year. The focus is all going to be on the future legislators, we’ll get the budget done by June this time for sure with all those vetoes behind us, and summer will be a nice quiet time with little going on for us. Lame duck will be even better. What could possibly happen?’ This serves as my formal apology, everyone.

For this final farewell of mine, it is only appropriate that the great majority of it be gratitude. I’d like to thank Almighty God first, just as our constitution does. Some people know the story that got me here, but I wouldn’t be here if it weren’t for His ultimate plan regarding our true first child, who miscarried at Christmas 2013. I couldn’t have ever imagined the path that would bring me here, but God knew and I have faith that we’ll see our two children one day that we won’t ever get to see on this earth. I’m grateful to God for His divine providence and care for me and my family and for granting me the blessing of having been here. When I was victorious back in summer of 2014, my dad painted a huge sheet of plywood with the words ‘To God Be The Glory’ and planted it in their yard by the road because he recognized that divine providence. I’ll never forget seeing those words and I’ll always live by them.

I want to thank all of my family, a few of whom are here. My dad and several others from my family are up in the gallery. To my dad and mom, Scott and Becky, I can’t thank you enough. You all fueled the weird political desires of a nerdy little boy and put up with me for many years, helping me immensely to get here. To them and all my family watching via House TV, hello and I love you!

Then there is my Grandma Miller, who, at 92 years old, is here to join me in the Michigan State Capitol for the first time. Welcome to your Capitol, Grandma. She is a political animal, a Facebook junkie, and a real spitfire. She taught me how to love God with all my heart and, aside from Alex, she has to be my number one fan. Grandma, I love you and I’m so glad you could be here finally.

To my 93,735 constituents who sent me here, thank you. It’s more humbling and more of a higher honor than I can ever say to represent two beautiful counties in down-home, small-town southern Michigan in my state’s legislature. I don’t know if it gets any better than having the privilege of representing my home where I was born and raised. I’ll never forget this great honor you’ve given me and I’ve given back all I can.

I’d like to thank the government operations team from the Michigan State Police that I was able to work with. Lt. Col. Amy Dehner is here. She’ll be the colonel someday, mark my words. You heard it from me first. She’s that good. Retired 1st Lt. Tim Fitzgerald is here. Fitz and I were once wrapping up a tour of the Lansing Forensics Lab and he asked me if I had just ten more minutes’ time. I told him that I was already running late for a committee. He was sad, he said, because he wanted to know if I had time to shoot a forfeited Vietnam-era Chinese-made automatic that made its way over here to a crime in Detroit. It was like shooting up pure adrenaline into my veins and I snubbed that subcommittee meeting no sweat. When I fell asleep at the wheel in Marshall with my daughter in the car, Fitz and his wife Denise were there for me. That meant a lot, Fitz. Sgt. Matt Williams, Sgt. Chris Gerard, and Sgt. Nicole McGhee are holding down the fort now and I’ve enjoyed working with them immensely. All five have become dear friends. You’ll have serious trouble finding more talented and respectful individuals than they. To all of you, it has been a great honor working with you and I want to thank you for your service to your state.

To Kieran Marion, Mike Batterbee, and Aaron Van Langevelde, all of whom I was able to work with as Elections chair and all of whom are here, I want to thank you. We accomplished so much good and stopped so much bad. Even though our names weren’t on the bills and history won’t recognize us as the architects, we were the ones who made online voter registration happen, more secure than paper registration. I’ll never forget how we did it and I’ll never really believe it either. Those are three of the wisest individuals I’ll ever happen upon meeting.

To Brad Wever, thank you, sir. It’s been an honor. Brad has put in so much work these last two years doing so many different jobs that I have to wonder how Brian Mills isn’t breaking some labor protection law or something like that. Brad worked like a dog just with the School Aid subcommittee alone and I wouldn’t have been able to do my job without him. We made an amazing team, Brad, and I'm going to miss working with you a lot. Thank you.

To some other residents of DeWitt, my good friends Tom and Jenell Leonard, a huge thank-you. You've been two of Alex's and my best friends here and we have appreciated your wisdom and friendship. When I did have to stay up in Lansing in the terrible event that session went after midnight, Tom and Jenell always had their door open and 'Aaron's bedroom' saved and ready. You're like our family and we love you guys. Tom, wanna go to Cracker Barrel later and grab some coffee? Oh, wait.

To my two most significant mentors here, former Rep. Scott Hummel and former Sen. John Proos, I couldn't have done this job without your guiding hands on my shoulders. That's a fact. I'm grateful for your wisdom, your faith, and your time you spent on me out of the goodness of your heart. My first call on a need for prayer is you, Scott, and I've never seen anyone do this job better and with more poise than the one and only Sen. John Proos. Ever. Thank you both, gentlemen.

To all the staff here, you're often the forgotten ones on this crazy merry-go-round. We don't take time enough to thank you. I'm not just mentioning you here; I've tried to get to know you all for six years. To the sergeants, MSP Capitol security, and tour guides I hang out with all the time: I've tried to stop and chat every single day to make your day better. Thank you for making this Capitol what it is. To the clerks, journal clerks, resolution clerks, and bill clerks, you've held a special place in my heart, too. To the HFA team, I will miss all of you. We've had so many good conversations about budgets over six years. There's so much talent in that office and yet zero ego. David Dickson, Matt VanAcker, Mary Ann Cleary, and Gary Randall: you're living legends and your names will echo in these halls long after you're gone. To the other staff here who I've had the pleasure of working with often, thank you for being the real gears turning the whole operation. To Paul Holland, Kent Dell, Bethany Wicksall, Sam Christensen, Jacqueline Mullen, Rich Adams, Joelle Demand, Alice Mansfield, Rachel Doane, Christina Guenther, Tim Martin, John Perry, Jeff Behrendt, Andi Brancato, Justin Easter, Mollie Wingrove, Elizabeth Kutter, Nathan Kissling, Josiah Kissling, Brandon Lanyon, Brian Mills, Scott Hummel, Aaron Van Langevelde, and Anne Blankenhorn, I'm forever grateful for what you did selflessly for me and my constituents. Thank you for your service. And now for my poor staff who have put up with me over six years, thank you for more than I can ever hope to list out. To Susan Martin, Marla Braun, Michael Wisniewski, Aaron Chatfield, and Jacob Boyer, if you had a dime for every time you probably thought to yourself, 'who is this guy,' I probably wouldn't have had to pay you. I can't say enough thanking all of you for all that you did to work with me as a team. We did a bang-up job. To all the staff above, you became my friends, not just my co-workers, and I tried to take care of you as best I could.

To my beautiful daughters—Jael, Leah, and Anna—I am so proud of you and I love you so much. I've enjoyed taking you here so many times, but I'm so glad to be able to work closer to home now for you three. If you haven't taken a nursing baby to the Capitol alone before for a whole day, changing poopy diapers on the floor of the Thatcher Room with other representatives watching, you should try it. It was an experience. Stephanie Chang, take your kids on the Senate floor as many times as possible just for me and the girls. When the idiots say stupid stuff, do me a favor and don't listen to them.

Finally—last, but not least—I need to thank the love of my life, the glue that kept everything in one piece, the one who made it all happen, my encourager, my biggest critic and biggest fan, the one who brought it all together: my beautiful wife Alex. I don't even know where to really start; you're simply a champ. Alex has been a wonderful mother and supporting wife through tough times. She is the star of the last six years, not me. Alex went into contractions with our second daughter right here on the House floor on opening day in 2017. I chuckled at the time and said that maybe the Capitol could see its first birth; she didn't think that was very funny. She went into labor back home in 2018 when I was here deep into the night and Sherry was preaching about something I don't remember at 3:30 in the morning. Joelle remembers that one. Many members have always noticed how I go home each night, sometimes painstakingly so and only to drive home, sleep, and drive straight back. I've done it for Alex and my girls. Babe, one last time, I'm so happy to tell you that I'm finally coming home.

I've quite enjoyed my seat mates over the years. Ed McBroom will be a lifelong friend and brother and we'll always be back to Melodydell Farms real soon. I'm so glad he is back here in Lansing by what I believe to be divine appointment. The Michigan Legislature is a better organization because Ed McBroom is serving in office here. God really doesn't make statesmen any better. That's a fact. Ed, you and I will remember for the rest of our lives how we finally got no-fault reform done. No one can ever take that from us. Great speech on that pivotal May 24. I want you to know how much I look up to you. You're the wise older brother I never had. Steve Johnson is just as honorable a man. Steve really does get a lot of grief here from his colleagues for the way he votes, but there aren't intentions in this room that are higher than his. No member—and I mean not one—puts in as much research into policy as he does. It's true, but don't be offended now; it's only because he doesn't have a girlfriend. I'm going to try to fix that, Steve. Again, Steve's honor is unimpeachable—that is, until I heard from a very trustworthy source not two weeks ago that he stole the Detroit pollbook and did something crazy with it. I never thought that Rep. Roger Victory's successor could possibly be as honorable or have as high an integrity and I'm happy to say that I was dead-wrong. Luke Meerman, I have a deep respect for you and your character. I'll never forget driving in to Lansing with you and Victoria to get no-fault done. We were like the cavalry reinforcements riding in late from Holland. It's been great getting to know you in Bible study.

To Tom Barrett, Joe Bellino, Brad Paquette, Triston Cole, Lee Chatfield, Ronnie Peterson, Joe Tate, Bob Kosowski, John Kivela, Adam Zemke, Amanda Price, Lisa Lyons, Al Pscholka, the Bible Study Group, the No-Fault Reform Club, Team Southwest, the Yoopers—Tom, Ed, Scott, John, Beau, Sara, Greg—you were just a few of my best friends here. We shared good times and I'll miss you. By the way, you won't find anybody who will advocate for good policy over their party as much as you will from the Yoopers.

There were just a few stories that I'll treasure in my heart for a long time from now. May 30, 2019, was a magical day for me as it was for a lot of us. Many of you know that I never went to the Detroit Regional Chamber Conference because I didn't want to taint my view of Mackinac Island. It's true. However, they went and scheduled the no-fault reform bill signing to be right at that conference. I walked up to the table at the event and the lady told me that I wasn't a registered guest. 'I know,' I said, 'but I just need to get in to that bill signing.' She was firm and said no and I was fairly distraught as I had driven to Mackinaw City and sailed over just for that and I really didn't see anybody I recognized. Joe Tate and Tom Barrett must have heard the commotion because they walked over and surrounded me on either side. It was Joe Tate who said in his soft, but rather convincing, voice: 'Excuse me, this gentleman has to get in to that bill signing.' I've never seen someone print a pass as fast as that lady did. That was a magical day. I left at 3:30 a.m. and I was home before dinner.

Legislators are funny people. They had to put in double doors in these chambers so the senators could get their heads through the doors. We also like to talk. I'm guilty at that, albeit acutely aware of my weakness. At a 4H event a few years ago at the church across the street, though, the facilitator found that out the hard way. There were many legislators at this breakfast and he said that he was going to pass the mic around the room. Red Flag #1. He casually said, 'Give us your name, district number, where you're from, a little bit about yourself, a little bit about your district.' I'm thinking 'stop, stop, stop, stop!' A whole twelve minutes later, he had only gotten through Larry Inman and Wayne Schmidt and he realized he'd made a serious mistake, but we got to hear a lot about Traverse City. It's a fine place apparently. Like I say legislators are funny people. Larry Inman was my seat mate on the Appropriations Committee. Let's just say that I once believed that Amelia Earhart was settled history and that surely no one was looking for her. You're a good man, Larry.

As a freshman, I was pretty naïve of what was outside my Appropriations world. There was apparently this huge energy fight in the Energy Committee rocking Lansing and I was just minding my own little sweet business. In my second year, I organized a really cool trip to Argonne National Laboratory in Illinois to learn about nuclear energy. I invited all legislators, but only two took me up: Aric Nesbitt, the chair, and Gary Glenn, the vice chair. They were in this feud and I had no idea whatsoever. So here I am with Aric Nesbitt, Gary Glenn, and poor Marla all in my Chevy Malibu on the Indiana Toll Road and things just seem tense. I was confused. I found out later about the so-called feud and it made for a good story. Things are good in the Appropriations bubble, my friends.

There were many other stories and good times and good deeds, too many to say. On a somber note, Earl Poleski and I traveled to Tpr. Chad Wolfe's funeral together and watched Erin Wolfe and their four young kids have to cope with having no daddy, no husband. I cried like a baby, but around six-thousand people heard the gospel of Jesus Christ that day. I trust that God and the MSP family are taking care of the Wolfe Family today.

On a lighter note, I used to refer to the plucky county northeast of Detroit as May-comb County right up until coming to the Michigan House. I had never met a person from there ever. In my first few weeks two nice reserved gentlemen named Pete Lucido and Ken Goike taught me that our state has a variety of different people. Both got in separate 'conversations' with me and were swearing and yelling a couple inches from my face about some MSP issue. Speaking of, there was that time Jack Brandenburg, whom I had never met, very openly wanted his campaign debt back. He sauntered over on the House floor and, right in the middle of session, demanded to know if I was Aaron Miller. If he were a little nicer, we would have thought at least a little bit before killing that bill. There was doing steps on the Capitol while speeches were going on, dodging Joelle's 'mom look' when she was looking for me for a vote, good conversations on late session nights. Marty Howrylak taught our caucus colorful words for bad bills. He once said, 'I wouldn't vote for this even if you poured acid in my eyes.' I wish I could remember the bill. You're a good egg, Marty. The Kisslings and the Keilens taught me that you can take over a town and run the whole place and do it without anyone noticing.

There were so many constituent assistance stories, but the ones that I'll remember are the ones where people saw that I cared. Those were so much more important than getting bills done here. Speaking of getting bills done, my top accomplishments in that arena have to be reforming Michigan's large quantity water withdrawal code and, of course, getting no-fault reform done and doing the legislatively impossible. Both of those pale in comparison, though, to my greatest accomplishment as a state representative. In December 2014, six years ago, my younger brother and neighbor across the street told me, 'Aaron, if you go to Lansing and become someone you're not, I'm gonna punch you in the face.' My greatest accomplishment, ladies and gentlemen, was never having been punched in the face by Isaac Miller. Thanks for keeping me grounded, Isaac. I've tried to exhibit honesty, honor, respect, and thoughtfulness while here and, above all, the fruit of the Spirit.

I've been getting asked for about two years what I'm going to be doing next. I keep telling people that I'm retiring. Joe Babe, what am I doing next? That's right, I'll be working at Sturgis Bank and Trust, cutting my teeth in loans and business development. Banking is people, trust, process, and math. I've been doing all four in teaching and legislating so far and I think I'm going to fit in there well and have fun. Sturgis Bank takes great joy in running a community bank with a high reputation and sowing into the community with time and investment. What more could one ask for? I'm extremely honored by the opportunity to go to work where I've banked since I was a kid and where they treat you like family. Maybe best of all, I get to walk to work.

Thank you all for your service. It's been a great ride and an honor serving with all of you and to have been able to serve the best state ever, Pure Michigan. Alex, we did it. To God Be The Glory."

Rep. Pagan:

"When I launched my campaign for state representative, I had just turned 30 years old. Set on building early support across my district, I took on the campaign motto 'take the lead, keep the lead.' However, I was met by a few naysayers who said I was too young, too inexperienced, and I needed to 'wait my turn.'

But I knew I had something to offer the community that raised me if I was just given the chance. That I could be the champion that so many of my neighbors were looking for. And eighteen months after my official launch, in August of 2014, I won my first Primary election by 272 votes.

In my first term, perhaps what stands out to me the most is this - two of our colleagues passed away, two of our colleagues resigned for different jobs, and two of our colleagues were expelled. It was an interesting first term to say the least.

I miss Julie Plawecki a lot. She tried in indirect and not so indirect ways to let me know that family meant more than anything happening in Lansing. She was always trying to set me up on dates and encourage me to go talk to this guy or that guy. Well Julie, I found the person who makes my heart happy, I married him, and now we have two beautiful children. I'm sorry you never got to meet them but know we think of you often. And know we are looking after your daughters - Monica, Lauren, and Rachel.

To the residents of Canton, Belleville and Van Buren Township, I thank you.

Together, we took on Betsy Devos' agenda and fought back against the privatization of our public schools. We brought awareness and called for an end to the profit motive that is plaguing our charter and cyber schools. We stood up for survivors of sexual assault and gender violence by passing legislation and spearheading budget efforts that offered protections for victims and prevention of these heinous crimes. We prioritized clean water and preserving our precious natural resources and Great Lakes by advocating for the prohibition of the toxic coal tar surface sealant, and delivered a $250,000 grant to save Belleville Lake's seawall. We stood up for workers by pushing for the repeal of the training wage and repealing so-called Right to Work. It is you, members of our community, that makes us strong and vibrant and better together. I hope I've made you proud.

To my staff, most notably, Lori Dey and Dan Myckowiak, thank you.

To Lori - Without a doubt, you are the best staffer in town. Always one step ahead of me, boldly guiding our office with your whip smart ability to cover all of the bases and stay remarkably organized. You have a real talent for policy work and a drive to match. Sometimes I think you are too good for this place - that your impressive skills would be better severed somewhere else. Then I am reminded that you bring out the best of us - showing me and everyone you encounter what is possible. That passing bills or getting our budget priorities included, we can improve people's lives, and there is always a way to make an impact. Thank you for having my back.

To Dan - Up until earlier this year, you were with me since my first day in office. Your keen ability to stay calm under any circumstance is admirable. You answered our constituents, who sometimes were in pain, were angry, or just needed someone to listen, with grace and humor. I watched in awe how you navigated our district, steadfast in demonstrating the very best government has to offer and becoming the adopted son of many back home. You are the real MVP of the 21st district.

To Dana Sherry, my first campaign manager who joined my legislative team my first year in office. You have done so much since we started our underdog campaign all those years ago. Know you make my campaign heart sing.

To Ashley Christian - who worked with me and the Progressive Women's Caucus before joining our team earlier this year. Thank you for giving it your all in the face of such adversity. Delivering unequivocally for our constituents in the time they needed it the most. And having a 'we can do this' attitude from the solitude of your home. Thank you.

To my colleagues, many of whom have become close friends.

Mari Manoogian - Your firecracker spirit, especially when dealing with older men who try to challenge you, is astounding. Kamala Harris may have made 'I'm speaking' famous, but you have perfected it. Never lose your drive and fierceness.

Jon Hoadley - My seatmate and progressive partner. While a rigged system and a global pandemic may have blocked your entry to Congress, I am confident this is only the beginning for you. Even Obama lost his first Congressional run. I'm positive you will continue to strive to improve people's lives - It's just who you are.

Kyra Harris Bolden - the conscious of our caucus. You took on serving on our most active committees without complaint, knowing your experience and voice there makes a difference. Thank you also for being my Vice-Chair in the women's caucus and all of your work to advance the equality of women.

Darrin Camilleri - My partner in crime. From that first day of knocking doors with me for 8 hours straight, I knew you were someone who would meet my match. You were meant for this work, as you have the unique ability to balance being a tenacious campaigner with being a sharp legislator. You are going places my friend, and I can't wait to see where life takes you.

Matt Koleszar - one half of 'team teacher'. One of my favorite memories was on election night when I informed you you had enough votes to win. A place like this is not meant for a hardworking teacher who was so concerned about leaving his students he almost had second thoughts. But in the end, team teacher is a breath of fresh air.

To my mentors - Chris Greig, Donna Lasinski, Rebekah Warren, Gretchen Driskell, Rashida Tlaib, Jocelyn Benson and Gretchen Whitmer - thank you for reaching back and bringing young women like me up with you.

There are so many more friendships and relationships that it seems impossible to thank everyone. And it probably is. But there is likely no one here without the support of their family.

To my sisters Jenna and Kimberly, my brother-in-laws Bill and K.C., thank you for your support. To my nephew Elliot and my niece Evelyn. I loved watching through your eyes the awe you saw as we walked them around the capitol building. My mom and dad - Nick and Kathy Pagan. They provided me and my two sisters with every opportunity in the world. I'm guessing my Dad still never would have dreamed up I'd be a state representative. I know they are immensely proud. And to my husband Karl and our son Kittridge and daughter Adler - you make my life complete. I could not ask for a better partner in life - one who has supported me beyond measure and was thrilled to find out we were having twins. One who claims I am the first sitting state legislator in the country to give birth to twins while serving in office. Could someone fact check that one?

I am most proud of my service as the Chair of the Progressive Women's Caucus and the gender parity we reached in both the House and Senate Democratic Caucuses. My capstone achievement was introducing the Reproductive Health Act - an omnibus bill that guarantees individuals are free to make independent decisions about their own reproductive health based on what is best for their own unique situation. I find it hard to comprehend we are still living in a world where certain politicians would force a woman to be pregnant against her will. We all have had to make complex and deeply personal decisions that determine the directions of our lives and we should have the freedom to do so without political interference.

So a lot can change in six years. A lot can stay the same. Serving in the minority is exhausting - you can only press the red button so hard for so long. Reflecting back, I truly ask where is our common ground? If you oppose abortion, why oppose ways to prevent it? If you support women's economic mobility, why not support ending wage discrimination and guarantee equal pay? If you truly support working families, why not provide quality childcare for working parents, earned paid sick leave, and an increase to the minimum wage?

We still have a lot of work ahead of us - deep, meaningful work that will require all of us. This year has thrown us some of the biggest challenges in generations; an invisible enemy in COVID-19. Racial and systemic injustices still plague our society and some of our fundamental rights hang in the balance. But we are Michiganders. We can get through anything.

I will leave you with this. When I was first elected in November of 2014, governor Rick Snyder also won my district the same night. I was personally represented by a Republican Governor, a Republican SoS, A Republican Attorney General, my Member of Congress was Republican, my State Senator and County Commissioner were Republican. Even my local township board had a Republican Township supervisor with a Republican majority. Today, every single position is represented by a Democrat. In 2018, Dayna Polehanki flipped our State Senate seat and Melissa Daub defeated an incumbent on our County Commission. Last month, we elected the first woman to lead Canton Township as Supervisor in Anne Marie Graham-Hudak and the first South-Asian to replace me and represent the 21st state house district in Ranjeev Puri, and the first South-Asian woman on our Plymouth-Canton School Board Anupam Chugh Sidhu. While I never had the privilege or opportunity to serve in the majority during my six years in office, I focused my efforts locally, working hard to change the makeup of our elected leadership. And I'm just getting started."

Rep. Lower:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker:

In 4 years I have heard many farewell speeches. Yet, I have always had a difficult time imagining giving one myself. But here I am. Over the last few weeks I have spent some time reflecting about not only my service these last 4 years, but how I got here.

I am mostly going to do thank you's. I'll start by thanking my wife Kristen. She's at home right now with our three children Aaron, Kate, and Weston. When I was sworn-in in 2017 we had no children, now we have a soon-to-be 3 year old, 2 year old, and 7 month old. So, if anyone is wondering why I didn't run for a 3rd term, it was because Kristen didn't want to have any more kids right now.....

All joking aside, Kristen has been instrumental in my service here. She helped manage my first campaign and has helped me juggle all the challenges and pressures that come with this job. She's also done more than her fair share of work with the kids and around the house so I could serve, campaign, and help my colleagues. I could not imagine doing any of this without her love and support. She's such a trooper, she even supported me running for Congress, while moving, and being pregnant with our third baby. As you can all tell, most of this speech could be spent thanking her.

But, I want to go back a little bit and talk about the unlikely chain of events that led to me serving here.

When I was growing up my family faced more than our fair share of struggles. During the recession, both my Mom & Dad were laid off multiple times, sometimes simultaneously. The community I represent in this legislature lost a major employer and my Dad was one of the nearly 4000 people to be laid off and become long term unemployed as a result. Like the community, they've bounced back, but it took a really long time and the scars/bad memories still exist. It was around this time in our lives that I became even more interested in politics and public service. For many years I had dreamed of serving as a pilot in our nation's military, but color blindness and an underlying kidney condition kept this dream from becoming a reality. Nevertheless, I still was able to go to college and become the first person from my family to earn a college degree and later a master's degree.

While attending Michigan State University, I worked multiple jobs to pay the bills and earn the gas money I needed to commute back and forth to East Lansing for school. One day, I was offered the opportunity to intern for State Representative Brian Calley. I was really excited about the opportunity, but it did require me to quit my job at Autozone in order to balance the schedule with my classes. I also had to go out and buy new dress clothes, because I only had 1 pair of dress pants, 1 dress shirt, and no suits at the time. I also had to live off of my limited savings for the foreseeable future. But, somehow I knew it was part of God's plan and that it was something I had to do.

From there, I went on to graduate from MSU early, serve as Brian's campaign manager for State Senate, on his official staff, as a staffer and campaign manager for other State Representatives and State Senators, and complete my MBA. I was also elected to the Ionia County Board of Commissioners at age 21 (besting Brian's previous record as the youngest member ever elected). So, I just want to say thank you to Brian Calley. Thank you for taking a chance on me and for helping set me on a course that led me to where I am today and so many other wonderful opportunities along the way.

Since being elected to the State House I have gotten to work with and build friendships with some amazing people. I'm going to thank a few but I will undoubtedly leave off some people unintentionally.

I'll start with Representative Julie Calley because our friendship pre-dates my service here. She and I served together on the Ionia County Board of Commissioners and we remained friends after that. Through all these years I have always appreciated your friendship, advice, and ability to listen to me vent my frustrations.

Senator Rick Outman: Rick preceded me as the Representative for the 70th District. We became friends when I was helping out on his 2010 campaign. But we really got to know each other when I became his weightlifting partner. In his weight room we talked about everything from life, God, death, and our families. Over the last 10 years Rick has been a major and important part of my life. I'm so thankful for his friendship and I'm proud to call him my friend. I'm also excited that his son Pat will be succeeding me as State Representative for the 70th District.

Steve Mitchell: I worked for Steve after leaving the legislative staff and before going into municipal management. I learned a lot about polling and campaigns and life from Steve. I have always appreciated his unwavering encouragement and belief in me.

Representative Thomas Albert: Thomas and I became fast friends here in Lansing. I have always appreciated his hard work, candor, morals, and most of all his friendship. He's going to make an excellent House Appropriations Chairman.

Representative Ben Frederick: Ben and I served on staff together in the House, but we got to know each other a lot better as members. Ben, I'll never forget November and December of 2018. Thank you for all your help and support. You are going to be an outstanding Majority Floor Leader.

Speaker-Elect Jason Wentworth: Jason and I became friends as candidates during the 2016 campaign. We have a lot in common in terms of upbringing and values. I have enjoyed serving with you these last 4 years and I look forward to working together over the next 2. I think we are going to accomplish a lot of great things.

Representative Michele Hoitenga: My seat mate for 4 years. 2 years ago she sat on my right. Now she sits on my left. I think this is because I am more conservative than her now, but I doubt she'll agree with that. .... Michele, thank you for your friendship and for always keeping session interesting.

Former Speaker Tom Leonard: Thank you Tom for believing in me and trusting me to chair a committee and serve on your leadership team my freshman term. I'll always appreciate the opportunities you gave me.

Staff: I have been fortunate to have the same Legislative Director for 4 years. Danielle Sirianni has been with me through it all. Thank you Danielle for listening to my rants, helping me serve our constituents, get really important bills signed into law, and encouraging, rather than discouraging almost all my crazy ideas. I have really enjoyed working with you these last 4 years. I have had a number of excellent front decker's who have all inevitably been offered other career advancement opportunities: Joe Cecil, Laurel Toppi, Alex Houseman, and Jacob Frievelt. I consider it a point of pride that you have all been promoted out of my office, or in the case of Jacob will be staying on with Pat Outman.

I also want to thank the local government committee policy staff that I have worked with over the years: Allisyn Mattice-Esku, Greg George, Amanda Gill, Chris Jones, and Derek Robinson. I also want to thank a few other policy staffers I have worked with on other committees/issues: Aaron Van Langevelde, Phil Goodrich, and Hassan Beydoun.

I would also be remised if I didn't thank Clerk Gary Randall. I have always appreciated bouncing ideas off Gary and benefiting from his decades of wisdom. It's been an honor to serve in the seat you once held in this legislative body.

The following is a long list of members and former members I want to thank: Steve Marino, Roger Hauck, Mike Mueller, Gary Eisen, Joe Bellino, Steve Johnson, Shane Hernandez, Pam Hornberger, Tommy Brann, Bronna Kahle, Beth Griffin, Kathy Crawford, Jim Ellison, David LaGrand, Tim Sneller, Ronnie Peterson, Rob VerHeulen, Jim Stamas, Mike Shirkey, Peter MacGregor, Pete Lucido, Tom Barrett, and of course Judy Emmons.

I also want to thank pretty much the entire House and Senate Republican caucuses. You all have had my back on many difficult issues over the last 4 years. I have this tendency to take on really tough issues. So, I appreciate the respect and deference you all have given me throughout these many projects.

Additionally, I have to thank the people of the 70th District. Thank you for selecting me to serve as your State Representative and allowing me to serve our community. I've always tried to advance bills that would benefit our area and the state as a whole.

So, that's a lot of thank you's Mr. Speaker. But that's mostly what I wanted to do today. There are many memories from my time here as State Representative that I will cherish for the next 50, 60, or 70 years. I don't know how much time I have left on this planet, but I have just a few days left here as a member. I want everyone to know what an honor it has been and how thankful I am for all the help, love, and support I have received during my time here.

I'll close with a final thank you. I want to thank my Mom and Dad. When I was a kid, my Mom and Dad used to always tell me I could do anything I set my mind to. I took this encouragement quite literally. It has always filled me with supreme confidence and has definitely always made me a calculated risk taker. Without this confidence and ability to take risks, I never would have taken that crucial internship, became a County Commissioner, finished undergrad in 3 years, became State Representative, or rearrange my life in a bid for United States Congress. I believe things will always work out how they are supposed to because you have both always faced challenges with good humor, faith, and hope for the future. In these challenging times we live in, I cannot think of a more important example to set for a child, family, or community, and I cannot thank you enough for helping me become who I am today."

Messages from the Governor

The following message from the Governor was received December 10, 2020 and read:

EXECUTIVE ORDER*No. 2020-193*Protect Michigan Commission*Department of Health and Human Services

The novel coronavirus (COVID-19) is a respiratory disease that can result in serious illness or death. It is caused by a new strain of coronavirus not previously identified in humans and easily spread from person to person. COVID-19 has already taken the lives of more than 10,000 Michiganders and fundamentally disrupted our way of life.

But through tireless effort, a return to normal is in sight. An approved COVID-19 vaccine, once available, is our best hope for eliminating and eradicating this virus.

Scientists worldwide are working together to develop COVID-19 vaccines through a proven process involving extensive safety testing. In the United States, this process has produced safe and effective vaccines for the flu, polio, measles, mumps, and more. While the development process for the COVID-19 vaccine has been accelerated, no steps in that rigorous process have been omitted. As of the date of this order, two requests for emergency use authorization of COVID-19 vaccines are under review by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

The creation of a statewide Protect Michigan Commission will heighten awareness of the safety and effectiveness of an approved COVID-19 vaccine, educate the people of this state, and help protect the health and safety of all Michigan residents.

Section 1 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 vests the executive power of the State of Michigan in the governor.

Section 8 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 obligates the governor to take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

Acting under the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, I order the following:

1. Creation of the Protect Michigan Commission

- (a) The Protect Michigan Commission (“Commission”) is created as an advisory body within the Department of Health and Human Services (“Department”).

- (3) At least 50 members appointed by the governor representing various sectors and communities within this state and reflecting the diverse geographic, economic, racial, cultural, age, gender, and occupational composition of this state.

2. Charge to the Commission

- (a) The Commission must act in an advisory capacity to the governor and must do the following:
  - (1) Provide public leadership to elevate and reinforce the importance of an approved COVID-19 vaccine;
  - (2) Identify barriers that may impede the acceptance of an approved COVID-19 vaccine by Michigan residents, which must include, but not be limited to, identifying areas or groups within this state that are likely to experience vaccine hesitancy;
  - (3) Support the development and implementation of an outreach action plan designed to overcome these barriers and encourage use of an approved COVID-19 vaccine;
  - (4) Coordinate with the Racial Disparities Task Force and other relevant task forces, committees and commissions working on similar issues and consider relevant recommendations;
  - (5) Provide input on, and assist in the distribution of, educational and promotional materials designed to heighten awareness of, and encourage use of an approved COVID-19 vaccine by Michigan residents;
  - (6) Identify opportunities to coordinate its efforts and resources with those of the various individuals and entities working on the federal, state, and local levels to ensure as widespread use as possible of an approved COVID-19 vaccine by Michigan's population; and
  - (7) Provide other advice and take other action as requested by the governor.
- (b) The Commission must complete its work and submit a final report to the governor by December 31, 2021, including a brief summary of the efforts of this Commission and its conclusions. The Commission is dissolved on December 31, 2021.

- (b) The Commission must adopt procedures, consistent with this order and applicable law, governing its organization and operations.
- (c) The Commission must comply with the Freedom of Information Act, 1976 PA 442, as amended, MCL 15.231 to 15.246.
- (d) The governor must designate the chairperson and vice chairperson of the Commission.
- (e) The governor may appoint one or more individuals to serve as honorary chairpersons of the Commission.
- (f) The Commission must meet at the call of its chairperson and as otherwise provided in the procedures adopted by the Commission. The Commission must meet at least quarterly until December 31, 2021.

Free access also must be given to any books, records, or documents in their custody relating to matters within the scope of inquiry, study, or review of the Commission, consistent with applicable law.
- (b) This order is not intended to abate a proceeding commenced by, against, or before an officer or entity affected by this order. A proceeding may be maintained by, against, or before the successor of any officer or entity affected by this order.
- (c) Nothing in this order should be construed to change the organization of the executive branch of state government or the assignment of functions among its units, in a manner requiring the force of law.
- (d) If any portion of this order is found to be unenforceable, the rest of the order remains in effect.
