EXECUTIVE ORDER
No. 2019-19

Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity

Michigan Poverty Task Force

Right now, hundreds of thousands of Michiganders live in poverty. There is no single face to this problem; its causes are many and varied, and so are its consequences. No matter how poverty is viewed or measured, however, one thing is clear: too many Michiganders lack the opportunity they deserve to get ahead, or even get by.

For instance, according to the United Way's ALICE Report, 43 percent of Michigan households struggle to afford necessities like housing, childcare, food, technology, health care and transportation. Single adults now need an annual salary of just over $21,000, while a family of four needs an annual salary of over $61,000 just to afford the basics. This means that there are countless families across the state who face tough decisions every day about how they are going to pay for the things they need. They must choose between paying rent or putting food on the table; between paying for utilities or refilling their prescription drugs.

And poverty is not only a financial issue. Michiganders living in communities of poverty are more likely to face other liabilities as well, including educational disadvantage, environmental pollutants, substandard housing, and limited public services.

If we are going to lift Michigan families out of poverty and ensure a path to opportunity for everyone, we must work to ensure everyone has access to the support they need. And we must act now, because too many Michigan seniors, children, and families are struggling to escape the grasp of generational poverty. In fact, a 2018 study shows that 1 in 5 Michigan children live in poverty.

While there are already many efforts underway throughout state government to assist individuals living in poverty, we must find ways to strengthen, broaden, coordinate, and streamline those efforts. The health and well-being of this state and its residents, communities, and businesses would benefit from a task force devoted to ensuring that state government is bringing the full force of its efforts and resources to the fight against poverty and is doing all it can to build a better Michigan for everyone.

Section 51 of article 4 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 declares the public health and general welfare of the people of the State of Michigan as matters of primary public concern.

Section 1 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 vests the executive power of the State of Michigan in the governor.

Section 8 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 places each principal department of state government under the supervision of the governor unless otherwise provided.

Section 8 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 also obligates the governor to take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

Acting under the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, I order the following:
