Rev. Kara Hildebrandt, Pastor of Lincoln Park Presbyterian Church in Lincoln Park, offered the following invocation:

“Creator of all that is good and just, we are grateful for this day to be able to come together, to make decisions, to engage in work for the residents of the state of Michigan. Bless those who hold office in the government and specifically those working in the House of Representatives this day.

May they do their work in a spirit of wisdom, kindness, and justice. May all their conversations, their decisions, their interactions be ones that are guided by a desire to serve faithfully in furthering the general welfare of the state. Give them the strength and patience while they do the difficult work of discerning, compromising, and enacting legislation. May respect be shown and relationships formed even in the midst of disagreements. May the decisions made in this place bring about a greater sense of community and care for each other. Bless the work carried out today, may the laws be fair and policies kept so that all lives are enriched.

Creator of Wisdom, may we all in our daily lives be made acutely aware of the needs that surround us and be given the courage to address them with innovation and tenacity so that Michigan is transformed into a place that speaks well of humanity at its best. May blessings of peace, compassion, integrity, creativity, and justice be poured out on our state this day and every day after. Amen.”
