Pastor Bill Zebell, Ministries Pastor of Berrien Center Bible Church in Berrien Center, offered the following invocation:

“Father in Heaven, Holy is Your Name.

May Your Kingdom come and Your will be done here on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Thank You, Father, for the many blessings You provide us every day, most of which we simply take for granted.

Thank You for life itself and for the measure of health You have granted us.

Thank You for the ability to be involved in useful work and for the honor of bearing appropriate responsibilities.

Thank You for the wonders and the beauty and the fruitfulness of this incredible piece of the Earth we have the privilege of living on. Please help us to be good stewards of this marvelous state we call Michigan.

Father, on behalf of my family, friends and neighbors, I thank You for this group of individuals who dedicate their time and talents to provide leadership and oversight to promote health and safety and prosperity for all who live, work, travel, play and worship in our state.

I ask that You would grant them:

- Wisdom to govern amid the conflicting interests and issues of our times
- A sense of the welfare and true needs of our people
- A keen thirst for justice and righteousness
- Confidence in what is good and fitting
- The ability to work together in harmony, even when there is honest disagreement

And finally, Father, I pray that You would give them an assurance of what would please and honor You and what would benefit the people they serve.

Thank You for hearing our prayers. We pray this in the name of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ – Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Cole moved that Reps. Iden, Inman and Lower be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Gay-Dagnogo, Rabhi, Camilleri, Anthony, Tate, Guerra, Manoogian, Tyrone Carter, Shannon, Liberati, Hammoud, Wittenberg, Garza, Kennedy, Cynthia Johnson, Yancey, Hood, Stone, Pohutsky, Ellison, LaGrand, Warren, Lasinski, Brenda Carter, Jones and Sneller offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 127.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to develop and improve trade relations with Cuba and to study and report on economic opportunities with Cuba.

Whereas, The Michigan House of Representatives clearly recognizes the need to develop and foster all beneficial economic opportunities for the state of Michigan; and

Whereas, Global production and distribution channels are of the utmost importance to consumers and producers and bolster state and national economies. In 2017, thousands of Michigan businesses exported $59.8 billion in goods to other countries. These exports supported 271,337 jobs in Michigan and the rest of the country in 2016; and

Whereas, International trade opportunities routinely change in conjunction with economic globalization, evolutions in technology, and shifting political situations. It is necessary to explore and cultivate new international economic opportunities whenever they arise; and

Whereas, Michigan has many established and burgeoning industries, particularly in the agricultural sector, which would benefit from improved relations with Cuba. Cuba’s more than 11 million consumers have been closed off to American producers for decades. A relationship between Michigan and Cuba would be mutually beneficial and foster economic growth and job creation for both parties; and

Whereas, The United States has taken steps in recent years to rebuild trade relations with Cuba by addressing long-standing regulations and restrictions imposed on Cuban trade, travel, carrier services, telecommunications, and financial industries. The full benefit to Michigan and the rest of the country will only occur with the continuance of these efforts to ease sanctions and trade barriers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to develop and improve trade relations with Cuba; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge Congress to conduct a study analyzing economic opportunities relative to Cuba and publicly report on the findings of the study upon its completion; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. Witwer, Garza, Bolden, Tyrone Carter, Shannon, Pohutsky, Koleszar, Sabo, Chirkun, Cynthia Johnson, Brenda Carter, Kennedy, LaGrand, Anthony, Haadsma, Hertel, Cambensy, Kuppa, Hope, Brixie, Gay-Dagnogo, Lasinski, Rabhi, Sneller and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 128.

A resolution to urge the Congress and President of the United States to expand the manufacturer's phaseout for the Qualified Plug-In Electric Drive Motor Vehicle Tax Credit.

Whereas, The Qualified Plug-In Electric Vehicle (PEV) Tax Credit is a federal tax credit available to individuals who buy a new, qualified PEV that uses an external source of energy to recharge the battery, among other criteria. This credit reduces the cost to buyers of acquiring a new PEV by up to $7,500 depending on the vehicle's traction battery capacity and gross weight; and

Whereas, For some buyers, the PEV Tax Credit is limited because manufacturers like General Motors have sold too many qualifying vehicles. Under the Internal Revenue Code, the tax credit phases out after 200,000 qualifying vehicles are sold. Over a one-year period, the credit is reduced by 50 percent the first six months and 75 percent the second six months. This reduces demand for low emission vehicles, stunts production, and can lead to layoffs; and

Whereas, Bipartisan legislation must be enacted to extend the PEV Tax Credit. Legislation like Senator Stabenow's Driving America Forward Act would add 400,000 vehicles per manufacturer and allow buyers to be eligible for a slightly smaller, one-time tax credit of $7,000. This would allow manufactures like General Motors to continue their domestic production operations at their current levels and make PEV models more accessible to everyday Americans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress and President of the United States to expand the manufacturer's phaseout for the Qualified Plug-In Electric Drive Motor Vehicle Tax Credit; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Tax Policy.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

No. 2019-16

Task Force on Women in Sports

Department of State

Multiple studies have documented that women who play sports are more likely to seek and fill leadership roles in other sectors. Yet even with the enactment of Title IX nearly fifty years ago, opportunities for girls and women in sports, while improved, remain severely limited.

These limitations intersect with what is now a pivotal moment for gender equality and opportunity in Michigan. More women leaders are serving in state and federal government than ever before, but there is still much work to be done. Women of color, for instance, continue to be underrepresented in government and in all other industries, and women hold just 15 percent of board seats at Michigan's 100 largest companies.

Women and girls of all backgrounds derive countless benefits from opportunities to play sports – from lessons in confidence, courage, resilience, and perseverance, to gains in physical health and psychological well-being. Female athletes defy gender stereotypes, serve as role models, and widen perspectives.

Nonetheless, and even with the protections of Title IX, women continue to receive fewer opportunities in sports. They encounter lower levels of investment, training resources, and safety assurances than their male counterparts – disparities that are further stratified by income and race. This is exacerbated by the imbalance of female leadership in college sports; currently in Michigan, for instance, only one Division 1 athletic program is led by a woman. When women succeed as professional athletes, they meet a glass ceiling and a substantial pay gap – barriers that extend to leadership positions with professional leagues and teams, as well as in sports agencies, clothing companies, and marketing firms.

This inequity in access and opportunity prevents girls and women in this state from fully accessing the benefits in leadership development that sports can provide – to the detriment of not only these girls and women, but also this state, which stands to gain from their leadership. Michigan and its residents would benefit from a task force that brings together local and national leaders in sports and education to evaluate this problem, develop strategies to support and promote opportunities in this state for girls and women in sports, and position Michigan as a lasting model in creating and advancing women leaders.

Section 1 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 vests the executive power of the State of Michigan in the governor.

Section 8 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 places each principal department of state government under the supervision of the governor unless otherwise provided.

Section 8 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 obligates the governor to take care that the laws are faithfully executed.

Acting pursuant to the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, I order the following:
