Rev. Dr. Susan Carter, Pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Lansing, offered the following invocation:

"It is with humble appreciation that I come before this important body today.

May the words of my mouth be acceptable to our creator, and offer comfort and guidance to you in your important work.

It is always valuable to seek the counsel of a sage person – especially for significant events. Such a wise man is Desmond Tutu, archbishop emeritus of Capetown, South Africa, a Nobel Peace Prize Laureate.

For a leader, says Archbishop Tutu, the people need a servant – someone who does not take the role for self-aggrandizement, but instead leads on behalf of all of the people.

The leader, he believes, is someone who does not disappoint when trust is given. A leader demonstrates credibility, especially when it comes with integrity.

We read in the book of Proverbs, that contains the essence of much of our ancestors' wisdom. When the righteous increase, the people rejoice, but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

And the guidance for that righteous leadership is this: 'Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds.'

You are charged with the condition of your flocks. You have been given the responsibility of paying attention to your herds.

In the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, echoing the prophet Amos: 'Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.' Act justly, be righteous.

The people have raised you up, and you will not disappoint them.

May you be the servant leaders you are called and elected to be - as you initiate this legislative session.

Blessings on you all.

Amen."

Rep. Cole moved that Reps. Eisen, Inman and Marino be excused from today's session.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Rabhi moved that Rep. Cynthia Johnson be excused from today's session.

The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. O'Malley, Meerman, LaFave, Alexander, Markkanen, Mueller, Garza, Cynthia Johnson, Allor and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 143.

A resolution to support the U.S. cherry industry's petition before the U.S. International Trade Commission stating unfair trade practices against Turkey and to urge the Commission and the U.S. Department of Commerce to take action protecting U.S. cherry farmers.

Whereas, Michigan is the primary tart cherry producing state, growing 189 million pounds in 2017, or nearly 75% of the nation's crop. Tart cherry production in the United States totaled 259.5 million pounds in 2017, valued at $56.8 million; and

Whereas, Turkish imports have caused tart cherry prices to crash, significantly damaging Michigan's industry. The amount of dried cherries imported from Turkey have grown exponentially over the last three years, more than tripling from 2016 to 2018. Subsidized by the Turkish government, Turkish cherries sell for 89 cents per pound while the U.S. product sells for an average of $4.60 per pound; and

Whereas, On April 23, 2019, the Dried Tart Cherry Trade Committee filed petitions with the U.S. International Trade Commission and the U.S. Department of Commerce, claiming that Turkey is flooding the U.S. market with dried tart cherries, lowering domestic product prices and causing material injury to tart cherry producers in Michigan and other cherry growing states; and

Whereas, In June, the U.S. International Trade Commission issued a preliminary ruling that Turkish imports "had a significant adverse impact on the domestic industry." A final ruling is expected early next year. If Turkish imports are determined to be injurious to the U.S. market, the Department of Commerce will determine the duties to be imposed; and

Whereas, If the industry loses its case, few cherry growers will survive. Already trees are being destroyed as it costs more to harvest fruit than the current return on the product. Jobs will be lost both in seasonal workers in the field and the thousands of employees in processing plants who work year-round preparing cherries for market; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we support the U.S. cherry industry’s petition before the U.S. International Trade Commission stating unfair trade practices against Turkey and urge the Commission and the U.S. Department of Commerce to take action protecting U.S. cherry farmers; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the members of the U.S. International Trade Commission, the United States Secretary of Commerce, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.
