Fr. John Rocus, Pastor of Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Brighton, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Heavenly Father, creator of all, we offer You thanks for the many blessings You have bestowed upon our great state of Michigan, this beautiful peninsula surrounded by great lakes.

We thank You for those hardy souls that first explored and settled this territory so many years ago, and for those who, through their imagination, their ingenuity, their faith, and their perseverance, have helped it grow, and prosper.

We thank You for those visionary legislators who wrote our constitution and those who have formulated our laws.

Bless our governor, our government leaders here in Lansing and throughout our fair state.

And bestow abundant blessings of peace and happiness on all of the citizens, from the tip of the Keewenau, to Monroe and our southern border.

Grace all Michiganders with a spirit of love and generosity. Give us compassionate hearts as we strive for the common good of all of our neighbors, particularly the most vulnerable among us.

Dear God, continue the good work that You have begun in us.

Make the rough places plain and the crooked straight.

Help us to face our future challenges with wisdom and insight and a spirit of compassion.

Prosper of the work of our hands, prosper the work of our hands.

Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Kuppa, Elder, Sowerby, Camilleri, Peterson, Haadsma, Coleman, Garza, Hammoud, Tyrone Carter, Shannon, Cherry, Sabo, Tate, Hoadley, Ellison, Byrd, Kevin Hertel, Koleszar, Robinson, Liberati, Sneller, Chirkun, LaGrand, Rabhi, Wittenberg, Manoogian, Pohutsky, Gay-Dagnogo, Hood, Vaupel, Cynthia Johnson, Mueller, Stone, Kennedy, Lasinski, Brenda Carter, Hope, Greig, Guerra, Cambensy, Jones, Brixie, Witwer, Garrett, Clemente, Whitsett, Anthony, Yancey, Love and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 240.

A resolution to encourage Congress to extend the ratification deadline of the Equal Rights Amendment and affirm the amendment’s adoption.

Whereas, The Equal Rights Amendment, first introduced in 1923 after the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment securing women the right to vote, proposed to establish equal rights for men and women. The Equal Rights Amendment was considered a logical next step in ensuring women fair treatment and equal access to opportunity, and remains necessary today; and

Whereas, A half century later, the Equal Rights Amendment was approved by Congress and proposed to the states for ratification in 1972. The amendment’s proposing clause included a seven-year deadline for ratification, which Congress later extended; and

Whereas, The Michigan Legislature adopted HJR LLL in 1972 to ratify the amendment. Between 1972 and 1982, 34 more state legislatures approved the amendment, three states short of the number required for ratification; and

Whereas, There has been a renewed interest in ratifying the Equal Rights Amendment in recent years. In 2017 and 2018, respectively, the Nevada and Illinois legislatures ratified the amendment. In January 2020, Virginia became the 38th state to ratify the amendment; and

Whereas, The Equal Rights Amendment has met the constitutional requirement for ratification under Article V of the United States Constitution. It has been properly ratified by three fourths of the legislatures of the states; and

Whereas, In order to reflect the will of the states, Congress needs to repeal or extend the original 1979 ratification deadline, an action it has taken for previous amendments. Under Article V, Congress has the broad authority to extend the deadline; and

Whereas, It has been almost a century since the Equal Rights Amendment was first introduced. It is long past time that we guarantee equality, security, and prosperity for women and men; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we encourage Congress to extend the ratification deadline of the Equal Rights Amendment and affirm the amendment's adoption; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Sheppard, Bellino, VanSingel, LaFave, Marino, Bollin, Wakeman, Glenn, Green, Rendon and Webber offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 17.

A concurrent resolution to urge the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services to appeal the federal court ruling invalidating the waiver for Michigan’s Medicaid work requirements, defend the waiver, and uphold its intended purpose of encouraging self-sufficiency.

Whereas, In 2018, Governor Rick Snyder signed into law workforce engagement requirements for Michigan’s Medicaid expansion program, the Healthy Michigan Plan. Michigan subsequently received approval for a waiver from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, allowing the state to move forward with implementation of the requirements; and

Whereas, The intent of the legislation was to “assist, encourage, and prepare an able-bodied adult for a life of self-sufficiency and independence from government interference.” To maintain health insurance coverage, the act requires Healthy Michigan Plan beneficiaries to report an average of at least 80 hours monthly of work or other qualifying activities or meet the criteria for an exemption; and

Whereas, The Healthy Michigan Plan work requirements went into effect on January 1, 2020, but a ruling by a federal judge invalidated the waiver for the work requirements on March 4, 2020, blocking its enforcement; and

Whereas, Maintaining a strong workforce engagement policy for government-funded health care is integral to ensuring the responsible stewardship of public funds. Hardworking taxpayers expect able-bodied adults receiving government assistance to work or otherwise be on the path to achieving self-sufficiency. Encouraging people to find a job or pursue activities that improve work readiness, such as education or job training, is beneficial to the state of Michigan as a whole. Work requirements hold Healthy Michigan Plan beneficiaries accountable and help them reach their full potential as productive citizens of this state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we urge the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services to appeal the federal court ruling invalidating the waiver for Michigan’s Medicaid work requirements, defend the waiver, and uphold its intended purpose of encouraging self-sufficiency; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Michigan congressional delegation.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Rep. Whitsett moved that the House adjourn.
The motion prevailed, the time being 4:45 p.m.

Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Hornberger declared the House adjourned until Wednesday, March 11, at 1:30 p.m.
