

SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 238

1           A resolution to declare March 2020 as Social Work Month in the 2 state of Michigan.

3           Whereas, The social work profession for generations has worked 4 to strengthen the well-being and meet the basic needs of all
5 people, especially people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living 6 in poverty; and

7           Whereas, This year's Social Work Month theme, "Social Workers: 8 Generations Strong" embodies the heroic work of social workers who 9 for more than a century have worked to make our society a better 10 place to live; and

11           Whereas, The social work profession is a diverse profession 12 that allows people of various generations, ethnicities, and

1 religious backgrounds to make an immediate positive impact on our 2 nation and world; and

3       Whereas, The social work profession is one of the fastest
4 growing professions in the United States, with more than 777,000
5 people expected to be employed as social workers by 2028; and

6       Whereas, Social workers are the largest group of mental health
7 care providers in the United States and work daily to help people 8 overcome substance use disorders and mental illnesses such as 9 depression, anxiety, and post-traumatic stress disorder; and

10       Whereas, Social workers work in all parts of our society to 11 meet people where they are and empower them to live to their 12 fullest potential; and

13       Whereas, The social work profession, more than many other 14 professions, has expansive boundaries that allow social workers to 15 work in a variety of settings, including schools, centers for 16 veterans, the military, hospitals and mental health centers, 17 corporations, and local, state, and federal government; and

18       Whereas, Social workers for generations have worked with other 19 professions, community groups, lawmakers, civil rights and other 20 organizations to bring equal rights for all; and

21       Whereas, The social work profession has been in the forefront 22 of pushing for changes that have made our society a better place to 23 live, including a minimum wage, improved workplace safety, and 24 social safety net programs that help ameliorate poverty and hunger; 25 and

26       Whereas, Social workers have been and continue to stand ready 27 to help our nation in times of crisis, including war and natural 28 disasters such as floods, earthquakes, and hurricanes; now,
29 therefore, be it

1           Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 2 this legislative body declare March 2020 as Social Work Month in 3 the state of Michigan. We recognize the numerous contributions made 4 by social workers across this state and country and join in this 5 celebration and support of the social work profession.
