Rep. Padma Kuppa, from the 41st District, offered the following invocation:

“I enter this chamber and start session with hope today.

I have hope that today however we understand and seek the Divine that we also seek a relationship to understand and help one another and people across the state of Michigan.

I have hope on this beautiful day in May that is a gift from God, that we are intentional and energetic in engaging our diversity and our differences to work for pluralism, and find common ground, to better the lives of our fellow Michiganders.

I share with hope the words of Rev. Grace Ji-Sun Kim, who wrote about Hope in Disarray:

We must remember, however, that hope is not the solution. The mind of conflict, the world of discord, will not recover through our hope alone. As we remember that hope is anchored to the very presence of God, the ‘inner place’ that resides in all of us, we must find restoration from God to allow the remedy of hope to bring healing between us—individually and collectively. We must take action.

I share with hope some final words translated from the R̥gveda, composed around 1800BCE. Reverenced as eternal revelation, it has served as inspiration for the Dharmic traditions including my own Hindu faith.

O learned seekers—come together, speak with one another. May our minds be in union with the thoughts of the wise. Sharing a common purpose, we offer our meditation as one people.

May we peacefully accomplish the task of betterment, and in peace, may we accompany one another in harmony.

ॐ शान्तिः शान्तिः शान्तिः (Om Shanti Shanti Shanti)

May there be peace in the universes, peace in our communities, and peace within each of us.”

Rep. Cambensy moved that Rep. Neeley be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Frederick moved that Rep. Schroeder be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

The Speaker Pro Tempore called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Lightner to the Chair.
