Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Steckloff, Yancey, Aiyash, Hood, Scott, O'Neal, Stone, Neeley, Hertel, Sowerby, Brixie, Brabec, Brenda Carter, Thanedar, Weiss, Rabbi, Young, Jones and Whitsett offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 128.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to abolish qualified immunity for law enforcement officers.

Whereas, The United States Constitution guarantees the rights of Americans to due process, equal protection under the law, protection from unreasonable searches and seizures, and petitioning the government for the redress of grievances; and

Whereas, To protect citizens from government officials, including police officers, who violate these rights, Congress authorized individuals to sue state officials who have violated their civil rights, as codified in 42 USC 1983; and

Whereas, Public outcry has arisen in every state in the nation over incidents in which police have injured or killed people, especially people of color, in situations where force does not appear justified; and

Whereas, Police brutality, including excessive and unreasonable use of force, possibly causing injury or death, violates an individual's constitutional rights. Section 1983 provides an avenue for relief to victims whose constitutional rights have been violated by a law enforcement officer; and

Whereas, The current wording of Section 1983 is susceptible to the judicial interpretation that plaintiffs must demonstrate that a "clearly established" constitutional right has been violated, requiring a victim to identify court cases with nearly identical facts in which a police practice was determined to be a constitutional violation. If a victim cannot meet this burden, the officer receives "qualified immunity", a judicially created doctrine that protects government employees while depriving victims of compensation for the violation of their rights; and

Whereas, Qualified immunity protects abusive law enforcement officers from any legal repercussions resulting from inappropriate and extreme violence against civilians, reinforcing patterns of institutionalized racism and undermining public confidence in the rule of law. Many Americans believe that justice for victims of police abuses and accountability for police officers is not available through the courts because of the doctrine of qualified immunity, leading to civil unrest; and

Whereas, H.R. 1470, the Ending Qualified Immunity Act, was introduced in the United States Congress in March 2021. This act would eliminate the defense of qualified immunity in civil actions for deprivation of rights; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to abolish qualified immunity for law enforcement officers under 42 USC 1983 to reduce the burden on plaintiffs in cases against law enforcement officers who have violated an individual's constitutional rights; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, members of the Michigan congressional delegation, and the justices of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. Hood, Yancey, Aiyash, Scott, Puri, Brabec, Steckloff, O'Neal, Rogers, Neeley, Stone, Sowerby, Brixie, Brenda Carter, Thanedar, Weiss, Young, Rabhi, Jones, Tyrone Carter and Whitsett offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 129.

A resolution to urge the U.S. Department of Justice to increase the use of consent decrees to hold police departments accountable.

Whereas, In 1994, Congress enacted legislation directing the Department of Justice (DOJ) to investigate local law enforcement agencies for practices of unconstitutional policing. In situations where unconstitutional policing practices are identified, the DOJ has authority to enter into consent decrees that mandate specific changes to policing practices; and

Whereas, Consent decrees, which operate as legally binding agreements between the DOJ and police departments, are approved and enforced by federal courts. Consent decrees provide the DOJ with the ability to hold law enforcement agencies accountable when incidents of misconduct arise. The consent decrees focus on reducing police misconduct, such as excessive use of force, and mandate proper procedures within police departments; and

Whereas, In 2018, the DOJ significantly restricted the use of consent decrees, requiring that consent decrees be approved by senior leadership rather than DOJ lawyers and have a set termination date. These limits resulted in a lapse in oversight over law enforcement agencies that do not obey the law, making it impossible for the DOJ to address police brutality and other issues of misconduct; and

Whereas, Under Attorney General Merrick B. Garland, the DOJ policy that curbed the use of consent decrees was rescinded. With authority to investigate and enter into agreements with local law enforcement, the DOJ must use the administrative tools it has been given by Congress to the fullest extent possible and enforce reforms in police departments accused of officer misconduct; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the U.S. Department of Justice to increase the use of consent decrees to hold police departments accountable; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Attorney General of the United States.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. Rogers, Yancey, Aiyash, Hood, Scott, Puri, Brabec, Steckloff, O'Neal, Stone, Neeley, Hertel, Sowerby, Brixie, Brenda Carter, Thanedar, Weiss, Rabhi, Young, Whitsett, Jones, Tyrone Carter and Kuppa offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 130.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to enact policing reforms to mandate anti-bias training, ban carotid holds and chokeholds, require the use of other de-escalation methods before use of deadly force, require body cameras, and address qualified immunity for law enforcement officers, among other initiatives.

Whereas, In 2020, the nation watched as law enforcement officers committed numerous acts of violence against people of color, punctuated by the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis in May 2020; and

Whereas, Although seeming to reach a tipping point last year, deadly use of force and police brutality have been a serious problem in the United States for decades; and

Whereas, Congress has an important role to play in addressing the deadly use of force and policy brutality. In 1994, Congress passed the Violent Crime and Law Enforcement Act after the highly publicized police beating of Rodney King. Under this act, the U.S. Attorney General has the authority to investigate police departments engaging in patterns or practices of unlawful policing; and

Whereas, Michigan has not escaped its own share of violent deaths at the hands of police. Saginaw resident Milton Hall, a mentally ill black man was shot eleven times by police in 2012. An unarmed Detroit resident, Malice Green, was beaten to death by police in 1992. At least 21 fatal police shootings occurred in 2018, an increase of 50 percent compared to 2017; and

Whereas, Nationwide protests have focused attention on the need to change policing culture and for Congress to enact reforms at the highest levels. In April 2021, the United States House of Representatives passed the George Floyd Justice in Policing Act (H.R. 1280). The bill, now pending in the United States Senate, re-imagines public safety by providing grants to community-based organizations, addresses racial and religious profiling, bans chokeholds and no-knock warrants, holds police accountable in court, provides for investigations into police misconduct, creates a nationwide police registry to track officers subject to disciplinary actions, and enhances funding for training. The George Floyd Justice in Policing Act is an appropriate first step in reforming police practices to protect the rights of all Americans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to enact policing reforms to mandate anti-bias training, ban carotid holds and chokeholds, require the use of other de-escalation methods before use of deadly force, require body cameras, and address qualified immunity for law enforcement officers, among other initiatives; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

THIS RESOLUTION IS OFFERED TO COMPLY WITH MCL 4.101 AND MCL 4.541

Reps. Lasinski, Aiyash, Brixie, Tyrone Carter, Cherry, Garza, Koleszar, Kuppa, Manoogian, Rabhi, Rogers, Sneller, Steenland, Thanedar, Weiss, Whitsett and Young offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 10.

A concurrent resolution to create the Joint Select Committee to Investigate Michiganders' Involvement in the January 6 Attack on the United States Capitol.

Whereas, On January 6, 2021, a violent mob attacked the United States Capitol Complex and disrupted a joint session of Congress duly assembled for the purpose of counting the electoral ballots cast in the 2020 presidential election; and

Whereas, The attack on the United States Capitol Complex resulted in injuries to over 140 individuals and five deaths; and

Whereas, The individuals participating in the attack forcibly entered the United States Capitol, occupied congressional offices, ransacked the chambers of the United States Senate, engaged in numerous acts of vandalism and looting, assaulted Capitol Police officers, impeded the counting of electoral ballots, and erected a gallows on the Capitol grounds; and

Whereas, More than 500 individuals, including Michiganders among them, have been charged with federal crimes related to the Capitol attack; and

Whereas, The full scope of Michiganders' involvement in the Capitol attack remains unknown and the prospect of an adequate, bipartisan, federal investigation into the matter is in doubt; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That there be created the Joint Select Committee to Investigate Michiganders' Involvement in the January 6 Attack on the United States Capitol. The joint select committee shall consist of six members of the House of Representatives and six members of the Senate. The joint select committee shall be composed of three members of the House Republican Caucus appointed by the Speaker of the House, three members of the House Democratic Caucus appointed by the House Minority Leader, three members of the Senate Republican Caucus appointed by the Senate Majority Leader, and three members of the Senate Democratic Caucus appointed by the Senate Minority Leader. The Speaker of the House and the House Minority Leader shall each designate a co-chairperson of the joint select committee, and the Senate Majority leader and Senate Minority Leader shall each designate a co-vice chairperson; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint select committee is hereby granted the full scope of power as authorized by MCL 4.101 and MCL 4.541 to administer oaths, issue subpoenas, and examine books and records related to the committee's jurisdiction as provided for in this concurrent resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the joint select committee shall investigate and report upon the facts relating to Michiganders' involvement in the January 6, 2021, attack upon the United States Capitol and relating to interference with the peaceful, lawful transfer of power, as well as the influencing factors that fomented Michiganders to participate in such an attack on American representative democracy while the United States Congress was engaged in a constitutional process. The joint select committee shall report to the Legislature a summary of its findings and conclusions, as well as any recommendations on further appropriate actions the Legislature may take to address Michiganders' involvement in the Capitol attack and to prevent future acts of violence against American democratic institutions.
