Rep. Abraham Aiyash, from the 4th District, offered the following invocation:

“BismaAllah Al-Rahman, Al-Raheem. In the name of God, the most compassionate, the most merciful.

All Praise is due to God, the Lord of the worlds. The most compassionate, the most merciful. Guide us to a path of justice and peace. A path in which we dignify one another’s humanity and praise the glory of Your bounty. Keep us on the path of those You have blessed before us, and not of those that have gone astray.

Lord, you are al-Hadi, the Guider. Guide us to pure convictions. Inspire in us the courage to act to match those convictions.

You are al-Mughni, The Fulfiller of Needs. Allow us to fulfill the needs of those who are vulnerable and suffer at the hands of injustice and oppression.

You are al-Mateen, The Ever Constant and Steadfast. Allow us to remain firm in our commitment to make the lives of all Michiganders better.

You are al Adl, the Most Just. Allow us to the commitment to seek justice, no matter who or for it is against.

You are al-Jami, the One Who unites. Allow us to work in that spirit and come together, unite, and do the work of the people.

You are Al-Waasi’ - the one Whose power, mercy, and generosity are boundless. Allow us to keep the hope, no matter the obstacles that lie ahead.

Guide the deliberations of our chamber to just decisions.

Let us not be overcome by the darkness of evil and division. Let us be the light that we seek from You.

We commit ourselves not to betray our prayers with actions that contradict them. May we honor one another, glorify you together. And inspire our state to be better.

Amen.”

Representative-elect Bolden appeared at the Clerk’s desk and took and subscribed the constitutional oath of office, which was administered by Gary L. Randall, Clerk of the House.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Camilleri and Garza offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 24.

A resolution to urge the U.S. Congress, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and other federal financial regulators to investigate the management of hedge funds, insider trading, market manipulation, the exploitation of customer data, and methods of stock market trading.

Whereas, A fair, transparent, and efficient stock market is necessary to our economy. The stock market is important to entrepreneurship, the ability to raise capital, and economic growth; and

Whereas, When unscrupulous individuals and organizations try to distort the stock market for personal gain and engage in other underhanded or illegal schemes, they hurt people and the economy. For many years, abuses of the market through complicated and confusing machinations have grown. Corrupt and unethical parties have sought to enrich themselves at the expense of everyday Americans’ pocketbooks, retirement savings, and financial condition; and

Whereas, The federal government must be a bulwark to prevent, combat, and end abuses of the stock market and in equity trading. Federal regulators need to root out all illegal and improper activity. Congress needs to implement a statutory system that guarantees a well-functioning stock market; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the U.S. Congress, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and other federal financial regulators to investigate the management of hedge funds, insider trading, market manipulation, the exploitation of customer data, and methods of stock market trading, including software applications and online brokers, associated fees, taxes required for trading, and any restrictions imposed on trading; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the members of the Michigan congressional delegation, the United States Secretary of the Treasury, and the commissioners of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Financial Services.

Rep. Frederick moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today’s session. The motion prevailed.
