House Bill 5525 (as enacted)
Sponsor: Representative Tom Albert
House Committee: Appropriations
Senate Committee: Appropriations

PUBLIC ACT 61 of 2022

Date Completed: 4-12-22

CONTENT

The supplemental would make appropriations of $139.8 million Gross, $24.1 million General Fund/General Purpose (GF/GP) for fiscal year (FY) 2021-22 to the Attorney General and Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity. From the Federal Coronavirus Relief Fund, $100.0 million would be deposited into the Unemployment Compensation Fund for future use in paying State unemployment benefits. In addition, $20.0 million GF/GP would be appropriated to the Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA) for customer service improvements, $8.9 million from the restricted Contingent Fund – Penalty and Interest Account would be appropriated to the UIA for 52.0 limited-term employees to assist with enhanced fraud enforcement efforts, and $6.8 million in Federal funds would be appropriated to the UIA for unemployment insurance equity grants. Finally, $4.1 million GF/GP would be appropriated to the Attorney General to support limited-term staff to assist the UIA with pursuing claimant fraud, employer fraud, and identity theft. These items are detailed in Table 2.
