Motions and Resolutions

Reps. O’Neal, Aiyash, Brabec, Breen, Cavanagh, Ellison, Haadsma, Hood, Rogers, Sabo, Sneller, Thanedar, Weiss and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 209.

A resolution to declare January 2022 as Local School Board Recognition Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan is home to more than 600 boards of education that work hard to enrich the lives of Michigan’s students through education and directly influence instruction in Michigan’s public schools; and

Whereas, Article VIII, Section 2, of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 states that providing for the education of Michigan’s children is a fundamental duty of state government; and

Whereas, Our state’s public education system is designed to meet the educational needs of all children and to empower them to become competent, productive contributors to society and an everchanging world; and

Whereas, Members of local school boards are dedicated to children, learning, and community, and devote many hours of service to elementary and secondary public education as they continually strive for improvement, excellence, and progress in education; and

Whereas, Local school boards recognize that all children can be successful learners, especially when education is tailored to individual needs of the child; and

Whereas, Local school board members are exceptional people, who have committed themselves to this duty by governing school districts and advancing student achievement in the schools and communities in which they serve; and

Whereas, During this month, we join the Michigan Association of School Boards, Michigan Department of Education, and local school districts and community organizations to recognize and raise awareness of the countless efforts and contributions of local school boards and school board members throughout Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare January 2022 as Local School Board Recognition Month in the state of Michigan. We urge all citizens to observe this momentous occasion.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Outman, Steven Johnson, Bezotte, Eisen, Slagh, Clements, Damoose, Maddock, Fink, Bollin, Roth and Yaroch offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 210.

A resolution to affirm our commitment to the inalienable rights of parents to direct the education of their children.

Whereas, The fundamental right of parents over the upbringing of their children has been unequivocally established in the United States. Parents are in the best position to know their own child’s needs and circumstances, and therefore, should maintain authority over all decisions that could impact the health and well-being of their children; and

Whereas, Education remains a critical part of any child’s upbringing. Michigan law recognizes that “it is the natural, fundamental right of parents and legal guardians to determine and direct the care, teaching, and education of their children.” Public schools are designed to listen to and respect the wishes of parents in the development of academic standards and curricula; and

Whereas, It has been long standing in Michigan that parents have a voice in the education of their children. The Michigan Revised School Code provides, “the public schools of this state serve the needs of the pupils by cooperating with the pupil’s parents and legal guardians to develop the pupil’s intellectual capabilities and vocational skills in a safe and positive environment”; and

Whereas, Education systems across the country have been infringing on parents’ rights over their children’s education. For example, radical politics have permeated public school curricula, resulting in education that amounts to political indoctrination. In addition, parents who try to object are either shamed or silenced into submission; and

Whereas, Parents have the right to ensure that their children are receiving appropriate education that is founded in historical fact, not ideology. It is essential that parents’ voices are respected and incorporated into the development of academic curricula; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we affirm our commitment to the inalienable rights of parents to direct the education of their children; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the State Board of Education.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education.

Reps. Brabec, Clemente, Sneller, Cynthia Johnson, Neeley, Sowerby, Anthony, Puri, Camilleri, Pohutsky, Young, Aiyash, Rabhi, Brixie, Kuppa, Hood, Rogers, Cavanagh, Peterson, Hope, Steckloff, Witwer, Tyrone Carter, Stone, O'Neal, Bolden, Tate, Weiss, Sabo, Brenda Carter, Yancey, Bezotte, Breen, Ellison, Haadsma, Sowerby, Thanedar and Yaroch offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 211.

A resolution to declare January 11, 2022, as Human Trafficking Awareness Day in the state of Michigan. Whereas, Human trafficking is a modern-day form of slavery involving the illegal trade of people for exploitation or commercial gain; and

Whereas, Human trafficking is one of the fastest-growing crimes in the world, second only to drug trafficking as the most profitable form of crime, according to the U.S. Department of State; and

Whereas, The best estimates indicate that approximately $87 million per day is made off of sex trafficking victims; and

Whereas, Michigan gained national attention at both the state and federal levels after passing effective legislation in 2013 and 2014 to help combat human trafficking and strengthen victim rights, and was named the most improved state in 2015 for its laws addressing child sex trafficking, according to Shared Hope International. Michigan has gone from a rating of "F" in 2011, to a "B" rating in 2019 according to Shared Hope International's Protected Innocence Challenge study. While this state has made considerable advances in fighting against human trafficking, we all must understand that there is still work to be done; and

Whereas, This legislative body encourages all Michiganders to educate themselves about human trafficking and be aware of how prevalent it is in our state; and

Whereas, We support victims of human trafficking who have yet to escape or be liberated and offer the gravest concern for those who have had loved ones become victims to human trafficking; and

Whereas, We commend the individuals who have been victims of trafficking, survived, and have overcome the atrocity, and continue to support all who have dedicated themselves to putting an end to human trafficking in Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare January 11, 2022, as Human Trafficking Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Yancey, Rabhi, Sneller, Brenda Carter, Whiteford, Brabec, Camilleri, Young, Pohutsky, Stone, O'Neal, Bolden, Tate, Sabo, Weiss, Aiyash, Breen, Calley, Cavanagh, Ellison, Haadsma, Hood, Lightner, Rogers, Thanedar and Yaroch offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 212.

A resolution to declare January 25-29, 2022, as Human Trafficking Awareness Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Human trafficking, a form of modern-day slavery, is a crime under international, federal, and state law; and

Whereas, Human trafficking is define as the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of persons for labor or services through the use of force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt, bondage, or slavery, and the inducement of a commercial sex act by force, fraud, or coercion, or in which the person induced to perform such an act has not attained 18 years of age; and

Whereas, To combat this form of modern-day slavery, the people of the United States, the federal government, and state and local governments must work to better understand the complex nature of this problem; and

Whereas, The members of this legislative body encourage all Michiganders to use this month as an opportunity to educate themselves about human trafficking and be aware of how prevalent it is in our state; and

Whereas, Along with health care providers, social workers, child advocacy groups, and law enforcement, we all must work toward a statewide solution; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare January 25-29, 2022, as Human Trafficking Awareness Week in the state of Michigan. We support and commend all work by indivial, businesses, organizations, and governing bodies for their important contributions to this commitment to end modern-day slavery. We encourage citizens to get involved with local efforts to raise awareness of and opposition to human trafficking.

Reps. Whiteford, Aiyash, Bezotte, Bollin, Brabec, Calley, Cavanagh, Ellison, Haadsma, Hood, Hope, Kahle, Lightner, Rogers, Sabo, Sneller, Tate, Thanedar, Weiss, Yaroch and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 213.

A resolution to declare January 2022 as Human Trafficking Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Human trafficking is a crime under international, federal, and state law, and one of the fastest-growing crimes in the world, second only to drug trafficking as the most profitable form of crime, according to the U.S. Department of State; and

Whereas, Human trafficking is defined as the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of persons for labor or services through the use of force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery, and the inducement of a commercial sex act by force, fraud, or coercion, or in which the person induced to perform such an act has not attained 18 years of age; and

Whereas, Human trafficking is not exclusive to just one gender. All victims of human trafficking deserve equal respect and the opportunity to report that trauma without judgement; and

Whereas, To combat this form of modern-day slavery, the people of the United States, the federal government, and state and local governments must work to better understand the complex nature of this problem; and

Whereas, According to Rights4Girls, a human rights organization working to end gender-based violence in the U.S., African-American girls are disproportionately affected; Latino and Asian-American girls also experience unacceptable and disproportionate levels of trafficking; and

Whereas, We applaud the special unit designated to combat human trafficking in our state's Attorney General's office and more must be done statewide to combat this growing trend. State and local law enforcement agencies must demonstrate a proactive approach to increasing awareness and prevention protocols and establishing community outreach efforts with civic, ecumenical, and community groups to keep our citizens safe; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare January 2022 as Human Trafficking Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.
