Rep. Cynthia A. Johnson, from the 5th District, offered the following invocation:

“Prayer for Unity & Racial Harmony”

Compassionate and Gracious God, we know the truth proclaimed in Your word that we are all created in Your image. Too easily we allow division based on culture, language, or race. Change our behavior and make us united.

Let us focus on our shared status as Your creation and unite together over what we have in common and not fracture over how we differ. To You, the Creator of all people, I pray. Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

---

Rep. Aiyash moved that Rep. Whitsett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 259.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Woodrow Stanley, former member of the Michigan House of Representatives.

Whereas, It was with great sadness that the members of the House of Representatives learned about the passing of Woodrow Stanley. He will be remembered as a dedicated public servant who was passionate about improving the lives of his constituents in the Thirty-fourth District in the city of Flint and Genesee County; and

Whereas, Woodrow Stanley was born in Schlater, Mississippi, in 1950. He later moved to Flint, Michigan, where he spent the majority of his life. He earned degrees from Mott Community College and the University of Michigan-Flint, and completed additional coursework towards a Master of Public Administration; and

Whereas, Woodrow Stanley’s lengthy political career began in 1983, when he was appointed, and later reelected, to the Flint City Council. In 1991, he was elected to the city’s highest office and served as Flint mayor for over a decade. In 2004, he was elected to the Genesee County Board of Commissioners, where he completed two terms. Throughout his career, he became a prominent leader in the Michigan Democratic Party and other organizations, such as the Michigan Municipal League, the Michigan Association of Mayors, and the National League of Cities. In 2009, after a landslide victory, he began his first of three terms with the House of Representatives; and

Whereas, during his time in the House, Representative Stanley was dedicated to improving the economic and educational outcomes of the residents in his district and the state of Michigan. He served with distinction as a vice chair of the House committees on New Economy and Quality of Life and Local, Intergovernmental, and Regional Affairs. Additionally, he served as a member of the House committees on Public Employee Health Care Reform; Regulatory Reform; Tourism, Outdoor Recreation and Natural Resources; Urban Policy; Banking and Financial Services; Redistricting and Elections; and Local Government. Finally, he served as First Vice Chairperson of the Michigan Legislative Black Caucus; and

Whereas, Woodrow Stanley, characterized by his colleagues as a community hero and passionate public servant, leaves behind a legacy as a dedicated advocate for his constituents. He will also be remembered as a loving husband, father, and grandfather. May his family take comfort in the knowledge that his efforts will long continue to enrich the people of this state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Woodrow Stanley, a member of the House of Representatives from 2009 to 2014; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Stanley family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

In The Chair: Hornberger

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
Rep. Frederick moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Cynthia Johnson, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

It is very sad that we are accepting to not encourage the practice of writing, at least that’s how I’m seeing this. The subjects of reading, writing, and arithmetic used to be the three foundational pillars of education and have long been considered indispensable for society. An indicator of progress in any culture is the percentage of people who can read and write. Progress is being replaced with supposed equity in the state of Oregon. Now Michigan is doing the same thing. If it is to make the playing field equal, I do not believe this is the way to go. As a black woman, this legislation is insulting and will ultimately hurt in the long run.”

House Bill No. 4811, entitled
