Senator Dan Lauwers of the 25th District offered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, thank You for the gift of life and love and death with the promise of salvation. In Your wisdom, You have given us the opportunity to be humbled by the loss of our loved ones and it's through this loss we've grown to truly understand the value of the life and love we enjoy. May we remain ever mindful of the preciousness of each moment we are granted on Earth and use the time we have in service to others so that we may leave this world the best we could with the time and talent we were granted. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Gilchrist, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.
