Senator Paul Wojno of the 9th District offered the following invocation:

Father, we ask for Your help with our legislative affairs this morning. You have ordained government that we may live in harmony with each other as You have given us this great state as our heritage to govern. We ask for Your hand of blessing today, and may we especially pray for the citizens of Ukraine that they overcome their enemies through Your divine intervention and we ask that You bring peace and comfort to all that have suffered.

We thank You for Your generosity and faithfulness for entrusting us with such a high level of legislative power. Bless our state and especially those who serve to strive for statesmanship. Bless them with honesty, truthfulness, and strengthen the people who have come from throughout the world to make America and the state of Michigan their home.

Lead us to choose the difficult right instead of the easier wrong. Help us to appreciate the opportunities that are still ours here in Michigan as we struggle to bring harmony to an unsettled world. We pray for Your guidance as we work together for the best interest of our communities.

Bless our health care providers, first responders, educators, and everyone who continues to serve others before themselves. May You provide comfort to those who are sick, who have lost a loved one, or have faced persecution during this time because of their race, ethnicity, or orientation. We ask that You would guide and direct this Senate in productivity, respect for one another, and agreement in providing safety and security for the citizens of our state.

Amen.

The Assistant President pro tempore, Senator Theis, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Gilchrist, assumed the Chair.

Resolutions

Senators Bullock, Wojno, Hollier, Bayer, Moss, Geiss, McCann, Polehanki, Santana, Irwin, Hertel, Brinks, Chang, Alexander, Ananich, MacDonald, VanderWall, Victory, Daley, Bizon, Wozniak, Zorn, Horn, LaSata, Johnson, Lauwers, Barrett, Shirkey, Outman, McMorro and Schmidt offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 117.

A resolution to commemorate March 2022 as Triple-Negative Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Whereas, Breast cancer is among the most commonly diagnosed cancer and the second leading cause of cancer deaths among women in the United States; and

Whereas, In 2021, approximately 281,550 women were diagnosed with breast cancer and nearly 43,600 have died; and

Whereas, Triple-negative breast cancer is one form of breast cancer that accounts for about 15 to 30 percent of all diagnosed invasive breast cancer cases; and

Whereas, In 2019, more than 53,700 new breast cancer cases were triple-negative breast cancer with higher prevalence among younger women, Black and Hispanic women, women with type 2 diabetes or carrying excess weight in the abdomen area, and those with BRCA1 mutations; and

Whereas, Due to its aggressive behavior, triple-negative breast cancer grows quickly and is more likely to spread by the time it is found and more likely to reoccur after treatment than other types of breast cancer; and

Whereas, People diagnosed with metastatic triple-negative breast cancer have a less than 30 percent chance of surviving past five years; and

Whereas, Triple-negative breast cancer cells do not contain three key receptors that medicines typically target in other types of breast cancers causing limited treatment options; and

Whereas, Patients with an early diagnosis can often be treated with chemotherapy, radiation, and surgery. Limited available therapies specifically addressing the management of triple-negative breast cancer have made treating this disease a challenge for clinicians; and

Whereas, Recent innovation in targeted therapies have fueled advances in the fight against triple-negative breast cancer; and

Whereas, Studies have shown that triple-negative breast cancer disease-specific mortality rates are often higher if patients have Medicaid or Medicare or are of lower socio-economic status; and

Whereas, Compared with non-Hispanic white women, Black women are 48 percent less likely to receive guideline adherent care and have an approximate two-fold higher mortality incidence; and

Whereas, Advances in breast cancer screening and treatment over the last few decades have reduced the overall breast cancer mortality rate, yet the disproportionate impact of triple-negative breast cancer on racial and ethnic minority communities raises considerations about the underlying determinants driving the disparities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body commemorate March 2022 as Triple-Negative Breast Cancer Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That we support legislation to reduce triple-negative breast cancer disparities in early detection and survival by improving education and awareness through health promotion initiatives targeting underserved communities that are disproportionately impacted.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Lauwers moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators McCann, Daley, Hollier, Wojno, Bullock and Chang offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 118.

A resolution to recognize March 17, 2022, as Saint Patrick's Day.

Whereas, On March 17th, Irish Americans join with men, women, and children of all different ethnicities who, for one day, become Irish and celebrate the Feast of Saint Patrick, the Patron Saint of Ireland; and

Whereas, On Saint Patrick's Day, all who wear green live in the spirit of Saints Patrick, Brigid, and Colmcille whose 1,500th anniversary was in the last year; and

Whereas, Irish immigrants helped form the United States' cultural foundation. Today, those of Irish lineage proudly sing support for Ireland; and

Whereas, The songs of Ireland are the tragic songs of love, the joyous songs of battle, the nostalgic reveries of the sorrows, the glories of the Emerald Isle, the lamentations of life's myriad travails, and the odes to joy and life eternal; and

Whereas, We celebrate the establishment of the American Irish State Legislators Caucus with its aim of fostering the longstanding and equally beneficial relationship between the United States and Ireland; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body recognize March 17, 2022, as Saint Patrick's Day; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Senator Mark Daly, Chair of the Senate of Ireland, which celebrates its 100th anniversary this year, and the national co-chairs of the American Irish State Legislators Caucus: Speaker Robin Vos of Wisconsin, Assemblywoman Carol Murphy of New Jersey, Representative Killian Timoney of Kentucky, Representative Fran Hurley of Illinois, Senator Shannon O'Brien of Montana, and Senator Mia Costello of Alaska.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Lauwers moved that consideration of the resolution be postponed for today.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bayer was named co-sponsor of the resolution.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of

Statements

Senators Runestad, Santana and Wozniak asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Runestad's statement is as follows:

I'm saddened to lose a very, very valuable member of my staff. Matas Blekys—Tas—whom many if not all of you know, majored in political theory and constitutional democracy, minored in economics and western European studies, and graduated in 2018 from Michigan State's James Madison College. He's been extremely impactful to me—a very, very important employee. I've been so impressed with his hard work ethic and frankly endearing personality. He often says he's thankful for his parents and the sense of gratitude they instilled in him. He's a proud Lithuanian American—he speaks and writes Lithuanian—and we expect at some point to have him back here in the Senate.

I thought as a going-away memento, I would share with you a few of Tas' musings and the training comments he made to new interns over the last year while working with Tas. I had the opportunity to secretly pick up some of these training comments and I have time to relay a few of these here for posterity. First, I heard Tas tell the interns, It's amazing how the Senator is often able to enter a room voice first. Second, The Senator does not want anyone to make a fuss over him. He wants you to treat him just as you would any other great person. Tas tells them, The Senator likes you to come right out and say what you think whenever you agree with him. The Senator does not mind any criticism, as long as it is out-and-out approval. When I tell the Senator he's brilliant, he says, modestly, I'll bet you say that to everyone who's brilliant. And lastly, no matter what, he tells them, The Senator is certainly trying—in fact, he's very trying.

To be fair, Tas never said any of these things. I just had to have some fun at his expense. Tas has been a fabulous, fabulous employee and a person I will miss very, very much. Our loss is the House's gain.

Senator Santana's statement is as follows:

I rise today because as I'm sitting here and reading through my media feeds and have taken the liberty to have conversations with my municipalities across southeast Michigan, I'm really concerned about the level of crime that's happening on our freeways in southeastern Michigan. We have seen an uprise in gun shootings from vehicles on the freeways in southeastern Michigan, and this is not an issue just dedicated or just identified in the city of Detroit but this is also happening in our urban and suburban communities. We have vigilantes and gangs who are taking their crimes to the highways and innocent victims are being shot as well. I'm just asking this body to take this issue seriously. We've tried to do what we can as municipalities to make sure we have cameras that are surveilling our gas stations and also our underpasses on the street level, but we definitely need to make sure we're doing more as a body in this state to make sure our freeways and people are protected.

I also just want to say that this issue is becoming something that—gun violence is an issue across this country, but we're definitely seeing an uptick in this. I want my colleagues also to know that when these issues happen in urban areas, we tend to ignore them or just think this is the normal operating procedure, but it's not. Let's not take it for granted. Let's make sure that as we go through this appropriations process that we prioritize public safety and public safety on our freeways.

Thank you all for entertaining my comments, and I hope that we will continue to move forward and make sure that we put the priorities of public safety and the people of Michigan first.

Senator Wozniak's statement is as follows:

Having served as a member of the Bruce Township Fire Department for more than four decades, Captain Eileen Rhodes is retiring and though I cannot be present to honor her in person, she'll be watching remotely so I'll be reading the words of the special legislative tribute that will be presented to her later in the week.

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is a pleasure to join with the Bruce Township Board of Trustees, the citizens and businesses of Bruce Township, in extending this expression of thanks and appreciation to Eileen Rhodes in recognition of her 41 years of outstanding service to the Bruce Township Fire Department.

WHEREAS, Eileen Rhodes was inspired to serve her community by her father's legacy of service as an MP during World War II, graduating from Romeo High School in 1980, Eileen began her service with the Bruce Township Fire Department in 1981. After earning her EMT license in 1982 and graduating from Macomb Community College with an Associate Degree in Fire Science in 1983, Eileen was hired full-time by the Bruce Township Fire Department in 1984. For the past 41 years, she has built a tremendous career of service to her community both as an Inspector and a Captain. In 2016, Eileen earned her second associate degree from Macomb Community College, cum laude.

Her service and commitment to community betterment is evident through her work with the Daughters of the American Revolution and her fascination with the history of this great country.

WHEREAS, Of all the services offered in our communities, nothing is more important than those provided by the people who commit themselves to their neighbors as first responders. In protecting our homes, places of business, and very lives, citizens like Eileen Rhodes, and her father before her, cope with on-the-job challenges that are truly unique. These challenges include the personal sacrifice involved in responding to calls, while missing family gatherings, to help others at a moment's notice.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated in honor and thanks to Eileen Rhodes for her devotion to others through her four decades of service on the Bruce Township Fire Department. It is our wish that Eileen, her family and her fire fighter family, will always enjoy the security she has endeavored to provide to others.
