

State Senator
MALLORY McMORROW
D–13th Senate District

Office: Room 6200, Binsfeld Office Bldg., P.O. Box 30036, Lansing, MI 48909, (517) 373-2523, E-Mail: senmmcmorrow@senate.michigan.gov

Committees: Economic and Small Business Development (Minority Vice Chair); Energy and Technology; Insurance and Banking

Biography: Democrat, of Royal Oak; born August 23, 1986, in New Jersey; spouse, Ray Wert; daughter, Noa Riley; bachelor's degree, industrial design, University of Notre Dame, 2008; previously held roles as designer and creative director at Mattel, Gawker Media, Mazda; writer covering automotive industry for Road & Track, Jalopnik, and Jezebel; founder/owner of Ginger Haus consultancy, providing branding and creative strategy for local businesses, and automotive trend analysis and forecasting; member, Freelancer's Union, Freelancer's Guild of Detroit; vice chair, Automotive Caucus; member, Progressive Women's Caucus; youngest woman elected to the Michigan Senate; elected to the State Senate, November 2018; Assistant Minority Floor Leader, 2019 to present.

