

State Senator
PAUL J. WOJNO
D–9th Senate District

Office: Room 6300, Binsfeld Office Bldg., P.O. Box 30036, Lansing, MI 48909, (517) 373-8360

Committees: Elections (Minority Vice Chair); Health Policy and Human Services; Regulatory Reform

Biography: Democrat, of Warren; born March 30, 1956, in Detroit; ethnicity, Polish, British Isles, Baltic and Balkan States; Roman Catholic; spouse, Lisa Wojno; three children; graduated Center Line High School; attended Macomb Community College, University of Michigan, and Wayne State University; B.A., 1979; executive administrator and assistant personnel director and Warren City Clerk, 2008 to 2018, City of Warren; selected as one of five top municipal clerks in the state of Michigan in 2012 by the Michigan Municipal Clerks Association; Warren Democrat of the Year, 1998; Legislator of the Year, Michigan Library Association, 2019; member, Michigan Elder Abuse Task Force; member, Michigan Human Trafficking Task Force; member, National Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Legislative Caucus; member, National Labor Caucus of State Legislators; member, Aerospace and Defense, Auto, Boating, Criminal Justice, Fire Service, Gun Violence Prevention, Labor, Metroparks, and Sportsman's caucuses; civic organization membership, Fraternal Order of Police, Knights of Columbus, Center Line Grant Foundation Committee, American Cancer Society, and American Polish Cultural Center; elected to the House of Representatives November 1996, 1998, and 2000; served as House Majority and Minority Whip; elected to the State Senate, November 2018; Assistant Democratic Caucus Chair, 2019 to present.

