The Department of Corrections is one of the principal state departments. Final responsibility for operation of the department rests with the governor, who appoints the director, with the advice and consent of the Michigan Senate. The director serves at the pleasure of the governor and is the department's chief administrative officer. The director has full power and authority in the supervision and control of the department's affairs. The office of the director includes:

The Legislative Affairs Section coordinates legislative activities. The legislative liaison acts as liaison to the legislature on matters of department policy and procedure and other areas of concern to the department.

The Office of Public Information and Communications coordinates contacts with the news media and provides employees and the general public information regarding department activities.

The Office of Executive Affairs oversees the Discipline Section which is responsible for all employee discipline; the Internal Affairs Section which is responsible for investigating allegations of staff misconduct and the Effective Process Improvement and Communication Section which is responsible for evaluating and monitoring process improvement, communication, scorecard activities, strategic planning, and serving as liaison with the Office of Good Government.

The Offender Success Administration is responsible for prisoner and community-based reentry programs and services and includes the Office of Community Corrections, which is responsible for implementation of the Community Corrections Act, and the Education Section which provides programming in the areas of adult basic education, general education development, and special education, in addition to offering a variety of vocational programs.

The Correctional Facilities Administration is responsible for the oversight of all prisons operated by the department, including the reception and classification process, the treatment and transfer of prisoners, and the special alternative incarceration facilities. The prisons are supervised by two assistant deputy directors.

The Operations Division is responsible for providing programming support to the prisons and consists of the Records Administration, the Classification and Placement Section, the Emergency Management Section, the Transportation Section, and the Special Activities Coordinator.

The Bureau of Health Care Services is responsible for the coordination and monitoring of health care services for prisoners, including the treatment of seriously mentally ill prisoners. The chief medical officer is responsible for oversight and direction regarding the medical and clinical practice of prisoner health care. Substance Abuse Services is responsible for the overall planning, monitoring and evaluation of prisoner substance abuse programming and testing.

The Field Operations Administration (FOA) is responsible for providing investigative support, information and sentencing recommendations to the courts in criminal cases, as well as supervising probationers and parolees following their release from prison. The FOA is divided into regions—the metropolitan territory and the outstate territory. Each territory is headed by an assistant deputy director responsible for oversight of the field operations within each geographic region.

The Office of Parole and Probation Services is headed by an assistant deputy director who is responsible for oversight of the Parole Services Section, which provides investigative support and information to the parole board in the parole revocation, supervision, and discharge processes; the Program Services Section, which is responsible for oversight of the intensive detention reentry program, sex offender management, and the Interstate Compact Unit, which implements the interstate compact for parolees and probationers; and the Electronic Monitoring Center, which monitors parolees and probationers on tether and discharged sex offenders for whom electronic monitoring is required.

The Parole Board is composed of ten members appointed by the director, one of whom is designated as the chairperson. The board is responsible for parole decisions, including establishing the terms and conditions of parole and the processing of cases for reprieve, commutation and pardon. The Office of the Parole Board provides administrative and support services to the board, including in the parole and lifer consideration process. The office is also responsible for operation of the crime victim notification process.

The Absconder Recovery Unit is responsible for locating and arresting escapees, parole violators, and probationers.

The Budget and Operations Administration (BOA) provides oversight of central office staff support functions and provides internal organizational support to the department's operational unit. The BOA is comprised of the following areas:

The Budget and Projections Division coordinates the budget development process and financial management for the department.

The Physical Plant Division is responsible for new construction, remodeling and major maintenance programs, fire safety standards, and environmental affairs. This division also provides a mechanism for auditing county jails.

The Procurement, Monitoring, and Compliance Division is responsible for procurement functions and contract management and also includes the Prison Rape Elimination Act unit which is responsible for ensuring the department's compliance with the Prohibited Sexual Conduct Involving Prisoners policy directive. The unit reports data to the United States Department of Justice in regard to prisoner-on-prisoner sexual violence, staff sexual misconduct, and staff sexual harassment.

The Office of Legal Affairs coordinates communication with the Department of Attorney General regarding legal issues and litigation activities. The FOIA Section coordinates compliance with the Freedom of Information Act; the Policy and Rules Development Section handles policy and administrative rules development; and the Grievance Section coordinates prisoner property reimbursement with the State Administrative Board, coordinating investigations and decisions of third-step prisoner grievances. The Litigation Section is responsible for coordinating litigation against the department or its employees and oversees department compliance with court orders. The Rehearings Section is responsible for the major misconduct and formal hearing process within the department and reviews requests for rehearing from all formal administrative hearings.

Personnel Services provides oversight of all human resource services and equal employment opportunity services provided to department staff by the Civil Service Commission. The Labor Relations Section is responsible for responding to staff grievances and unfair labor practice charges and representation at related conferences, hearings, arbitration, and contract disputes.

The Office of Research and Planning provides corrections research, statistical analyses, legislative impact studies, and prisoner population projections in support of strategic and operational planning, and also manages the enterprise-wide automated data systems oversight, development, maintenance, and security. In addition, the office responds to emergency and ad hoc requests from throughout state and federal government, other agencies and organizations, the media, and the public for data, analysis, information, and statistical reporting.

Michigan State Industries is responsible for the overall control, management, and supervision of prison industry programs.

The Training Division is responsible for new employee, in-service, and leadership training for staff, the recruitment of new employees, and the Ordnance Unit.
