Rep. Sharon MacDonell from the 56th District, offered the following invocation:

“Esteemed members of the House, thank you for gathering today to engage in the vital work of governance for our community and state.

As we begin this session, let’s take a moment to reflect on the responsibilities we bear. We are here not just as representatives, but as stewards of the hopes and dreams of the people we serve. Our decisions today will shape the future, and it is essential that we approach our work with integrity, empathy, and a commitment to the common good.

Let us be mindful of the diverse beliefs and values held by our constituents. Let us uphold the principles of democracy, equality, and justice for all, regardless of ethnicity, religion, gender, or socio-economic status. Each voice here brings unique perspectives and experiences. Together, we have the power to foster understanding and collaboration, to listen deeply, and to build bridges where there may be divides.

In this spirit, may we be guided by a sense of purpose and a dedication to justice. Let us strive for solutions that uplift all members of our community, ensuring that every person’s dignity is respected and that their needs are met.

As we deliberate on important issues today, may we remember the values of honesty, transparency, and respect for one another. Let us engage in thoughtful dialogue and uphold the principles of democracy, for it is through our collective efforts that we can create meaningful change.

Thank you for your commitment to the great state of Michigan.”

Rep. Aiyash moved that Reps. Haadsma and Whitsett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 305.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Joseph P. Swallow, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, It was with great sorrow that the members of the House of Representatives learned about the passing of Joseph P. Swallow. He will be remembered as a dedicated public servant by his constituents in the counties of Alcona, Alpena, Cheboygan, Montmorency, Oscoda, and Presque Isle, and the people of the State of Michigan; and

Whereas, Joseph Swallow was proud of being part of the fourth generation of his family to be born and raised in Northeast Michigan, arriving into the world in his parent’s Alpena apartment above his family’s hardware store - the very same hardware store he would spend his youth working in alongside his family; and

Whereas, Joseph Swallow earned a degree in accounting from Central Michigan College, now known as Central Michigan University, in 1955, where he was an active member of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity and a part of Central’s first graduating Army ROTC class. His pride for his alma mater did not end upon his graduation, and he served for several years on Central’s Alumni Development Board, and he could often be spotted at homecomings and other football games. Central’s ROTC program named Joseph Swallow to their Hall of Fame in recognition of his outstanding career; and

Whereas, Joseph Swallow’s lifelong dedication to public service began after his college graduation when he proudly served his country during the Korean War. Working through the ranks from a Second Lieutenant to the rank of Captain, Joseph Swallow earned many medals and accolades during his time in the service, and he remained a Reserve Officer until he was honorably discharged in 1965; and

Whereas, After leaving the service, Joseph Swallow found himself in Detroit working as an accountant for J.L. Hudson Co. It was during his time in Detroit that Joseph Swallow discovered a passion for the law while he attended the Detroit College of Law at night. Upon his graduation in 1961, his public service continued when he returned home to Alpena and served as the Alpena County Prosecuting Attorney from 1963 to 1964; and

Whereas, Joseph Swallow was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1965, where he would serve his constituents with distinction for four consecutive terms. Joseph Swallow quickly made a name for himself in the state capitol where he always worked in the best interests of his constituents, which included securing funding for local projects and fighting to halt legislation he viewed as endangering small, rural communities. However, it was Joseph Swallow’s ability to work and maintain relationships with colleagues across the aisle that he is most remembered for; and

Whereas, In 1972, Joseph Swallow was elected to the position of Circuit Court Judge for Michigan’s 26th Circuit Court, where he served for 32 years, making him the longest tenured judge in the Circuit’s history. While on the bench, Joseph Swallow continued looking for ways in which he could serve his community, which resulted in him assisting in the creation of a Joint Judicial Commission, helping create the Public Defender’s Office, and being an instrumental part of the creation of the Sunrise Center for substance abuse treatment. His dedication and hard work earned him a selection as one of Michigan’s Most Respected Judges by Michigan Lawyer’s Weekly. Joseph Swallow retired from the bench in 2004; and

Whereas, Joseph Swallow’s commitment to his community did not end in his professional capacity. Throughout his life, he dedicated his time to a number of nonprofits, including helping to create Luther Community Manor, which assists with affordable senior living in Alpena, and championing causes that helped Northeast Michigan and that aimed to preserve and improve the region’s natural environment. During retirement, Joseph Swallow also enjoyed his favorite pastimes, spending time boating, hiking, biking, and skiing. He also continued his love of reading to satisfy his seemingly insatiable thirst for knowledge; and

Whereas, Joseph Swallow is survived by his loving wife of 55 years, Jane, along with one daughter, three sons, six grandchildren, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews; and

Whereas, Upon Joseph Swallow’s passing, we offer our condolences to his loved ones. Joseph Swallow’s contributions to this chamber and the State of Michigan will be remembered; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Joseph Swallow, a member of the House of Representatives from 1965 to 1972; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Swallow family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Glanville to the Chair.

The question being on agreeing to the title of the bill,

A bill to amend 1949 PA 300, entitled “An act to provide for the registration, titling, sale, transfer, and regulation of certain vehicles operated upon the public highways of this state or any other place open to the general public or generally accessible to motor vehicles and distressed vehicles; to provide for the licensing of dealers; to provide for the examination, licensing, and control of operators and chauffeurs; to provide for the giving of proof of financial responsibility and security by owners and operators of vehicles; to provide for the imposition, levy, and collection of specific taxes on vehicles, and the levy and collection of sales and use taxes, license fees, and permit fees; to provide for the regulation and use of streets and highways; to create certain funds; to provide penalties and sanctions for a violation of this act; to provide for civil liability of manufacturers, the manufacturers of certain devices, the manufacturers of automated technology, upfitters, owners, and operators of vehicles and service of process on residents and nonresidents; to regulate the introduction and use of certain evidence; to regulate and certify the manufacturers of certain devices; to provide for approval and certification of installers and servicers of certain devices; to provide for the levy of certain assessments; to provide for the enforcement of this act; to provide for the creation of and to prescribe the powers and duties of certain state and local agencies; to impose liability upon the state or local agencies; to provide appropriations for certain purposes; to repeal all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act or contrary to this act; and to repeal certain parts of this act on a specific date,” (MCL 257.1 to 257.923) by adding section 803u.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Aiyash moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Martin, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

All military members are trained to act as one team and have each other’s back. There should not be a division by gender or any other physical definition of a military veteran. Also, a gender specific identification seems the antithesis of current civil rights goals.”

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Wilson, Bezotte and MacDonell offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 306.

A resolution to commemorate the 175th anniversary of Eastern Michigan University.

Whereas, The Michigan House is proud to honor Eastern Michigan University’s 175 years as an exemplar of equity and excellence in education; and

Whereas, Eastern Michigan University was founded in 1849 as the Michigan State Normal School, the first institution dedicated to educating American teachers west of the Allegheny Mountains; and

Whereas, Eastern Michigan University has long been a leader in educating professional teachers, being the first American normal school to offer a four-year curriculum; and

Whereas, As the first public college in Michigan to admit both men and women regardless of race, Eastern Michigan University has also been at the forefront in advancing equity in higher education; and

Whereas, The Michigan State Teachers’ Association (later to become the Michigan Education Association) was organized by approximately two hundred teachers in 1852 at Eastern Michigan University; and

Whereas, The Department of Special Education at Eastern Michigan University is one of the oldest special education programs in the country, providing classes since 1915 on how to provide education designed for the needs of students with disabilities; and

Whereas, Eastern Michigan University has continued to broaden its educational offerings and develop over time from the Michigan State Normal School to the Michigan State Normal College to Eastern Michigan College and finally Eastern Michigan University; and

Whereas, Eastern Michigan University is now a research university comprising seven colleges and schools: the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Business, the College of Education, the College of Health and Human Services, the GameAbove College of Engineering and Technology, the Honors College, and the Graduate School; and

Whereas, Eastern Michigan University has been a vital part of the Ypsilanti community since local citizens first raised funds for its founding, and continues to be a center of community life and educational excellence; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 175th anniversary of Eastern Michigan University. We recognize Eastern Michigan University’s 175 years of contributions to our state and hope that it will continue in its tradition of excellence for many years to come.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Young, Bezotte and MacDonell offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 307.

A resolution to declare October 2024 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV), Domestic Violence Awareness Month was launched nationwide in October 1981 as a way to connect and unite individuals and organizations working on domestic violence issues and raise awareness for those issues; and

Whereas, NCADV defines domestic violence as the willful intimidation, physical assault, battery, sexual assault, and/or other abusive behavior as part of a systematic pattern of power and control perpetrated by one intimate partner against another. It includes physical violence, sexual violence, psychological violence, and emotional abuse; and

Whereas, Domestic violence impacts individuals in every community of our state, regardless of age, economic status, sexual orientation, gender, race, religion, or nationality; and

Whereas, Perpetrators of domestic violence intentionally engage in a pattern of behavior to exert coercive control in intimate partner relationships, violating the fundamental human rights of those they abuse; and

Whereas, According to the NCADV, 41.8 percent of Michigan women and 23 percent of Michigan men experience intimate partner physical violence, intimate partner rape, and/or intimate partner stalking in their lives. In fact, in just a single day in 2019, 16 Michigan domestic violence programs provided services to 417 adult and child survivors. Another 376 requests for services went unmet due to lack of resources. Annual data from Michigan State Police indicates that there were 69,765 domestic violence incidents reported in 2022 and fatalities rose from eighty-nine deaths in 2010 to 101 in 2022, despite increased awareness; and

Whereas, While throughout the last three decades, much progress has been made to support domestic violence victims and survivors and to hold abusers accountable, continued awareness, education, and action are crucial to intervention in and prevention of domestic violence; and

Whereas, We must work together to educate our entire population about what can be done to prevent domestic violence, hold perpetrators accountable, support the individual and unique needs of survivors, and ensure that survivors are not victimized; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 2024 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.
