

No. 1
STATE OF MICHIGAN
JOURNAL
OF THE
House of Representatives
103rd Legislature
REGULAR SESSION OF 2025

House Chamber, Lansing, Wednesday, January 8, 2025

12:00 Noon.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Constitution, the Representatives-elect to the House of Representatives of the State of Michigan for the years 2025 and 2026, assembled in Representative Hall in the Capitol at Lansing on the second Wednesday in January, the 8th of January, 2025 at 12:00 o'clock noon, and in accordance with law, were called to order by Richard J. Brown, Clerk of the preceding House.

Pastor Lorenzo Sewell, Senior Pastor of 180° Church in Detroit, offered the following invocation:

“God of Abraham, Issac and Jacob, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, God of mercy and comfort thank You today for 110 house districts, 83 counties, five Great Lakes, Up North, the Westside of the State, the southeastern side of the state, and the largest voting block in our state the city of Detroit.

Thank You for being so kind to us that You would allow us to approach You on this 103rd session of the Michigan State legislature. You’ve been kind enough to protect us, guide us and lead us to this point. We give You glory that progress is always bi-partisan.

We are believing that this session would be one of the greatest signs of unity and progress in our states history. Thank You for never giving up on Michigan. We pray that Michigan would never give up on You.

Heavenly Father, in the name of Jesus, now we turn our hearts and our faith toward the families of our leaders, for our governor, and for our state legislature. Our prayer is that You protect us from things seen and unseen, we ask that You would cover, lead, guide and anoint our leaders to do Your will and not their own will.

We’re asking that You would give Hope to the hopeless, peace in the midst of a storm...revelation and insight in the mist of chaos and corruption...how we need You!

We bring before You, Your words concerning us... If my people that are called by my name, if they humble themselves and pray if they seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, you would hear from heaven, forgive our sin and heal our land.

Heavenly Father, we are asking that You would put Your hand upon Michigan and heal the hurts, hangups and habits that we may have. Those areas in our lives that are not politically advantageous for our constituents.

We want You to bring heaven down to earth, so we are asking You this day to use us. We commit our minds to You that we might think Your thoughts, we commit our hearts to You that we may feel Your heart, we commit our hands to You that we may do Your will, and we commit our feet to You that we may walk in the way that You’ve called us to walk.

We are asking that You would accept our prayers, our praise, and our faith on this day that we would represent You to the great state of Michigan and people would be able to say that’s what Heaven looks like. We will be so careful to give You all the glory, we will be so careful to give You all the praise, and we will be so careful to give You all the Honor. In the name of Jesus Christ we pray amen.”

Rep. Posthumus moved that Rule 17 be suspended.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

Rep. Posthumus moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. DeBoer:

“It is with a deep sense of respect and decorum for this honorable Chamber and the great state of Michigan that I rise to nominate my friend, colleague, and proven leader to be the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

He is a sincere listener who takes messages to heart. He understands the value each person brings to the whole body. He carries a sense of duty to protect and provide for the children, families, workers, businesses, and communities of Michigan.

Matt has worked hard every day, all day, whether anyone saw it or not. He has stayed on mission with a determined perseverance, focusing on the vision, wisely navigating the challenges with agility and strength. We can always learn a lot about a person’s character when they are entrusted with power. Some reach that achievement before they develop character. Others achieve position after difficult character-shaping experiences.

We are thankful for all the lessons Speaker-elect Hall has learned in the House through being in the Majority as well as in the Minority and in life up to this point. We respect his evenhanded approach to office budgets, committee assignments, and the authority of the House as a branch of government.

I am honored to nominate Representative Matt Hall to be the Speaker of the House for the 103rd Legislature, not because he drifted into this Chamber, but because he has worked hard, faced overwhelming opposition, seemingly impossible odds, and has risen to this opportunity with heartfelt listening, incessant strategic thinking, and the lionhearted soul of bold leadership.

Please join me in supporting the election of the honorable Representative Matt Hall from HD42.”

Rep. Puri seconded the nomination of Rep. Hall.

Rep. Puri:

“Thank you, Mr. Clerk.

Today, as we gather to begin a new legislative term, we are reminded of the immense responsibility and privilege bestowed upon us by the people of Michigan. It is a moment to reflect on the work we have accomplished together and to look ahead with determination, united in our shared goal of building a brighter future for our state.

With this spirit of service and collaboration in mind, I rise on behalf of the House Democratic Caucus to second the nomination of my colleague, Representative Matt Hall, as Speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives for the 103rd Legislature.

As we embark on this new term, we must lead by example. Our actions in this chamber resonate far beyond these walls. They signal to the great people of Michigan that their elected leaders deliver solutions, not divisions; progress, not partisanship.

Michigan is a diverse state, and our constituents demand we work together. If we’ve seen anything, bipartisanship isn’t just a buzzword—it’s a necessity. Representative Hall will be presented with the opportunity to reach across the aisle to find common ground, ensuring this chamber prioritizes pragmatic policy over petty politics.

In that regard, I trust we will spend this term, not debating about parking spots and seating assignments, but instead focus on delivering for the people of Michigan.

We have the chance to advance policies that truly benefit Michigan families. From providing real tax relief to addressing the rising cost of living, to strengthening our education system, and ensuring our communities remain safe—these are issues that transcend party lines. As Speaker, Representative Hall will be bestowed with the responsibility to demonstrate leadership that ensures these priorities are addressed through cooperation and mutual respect. I trust that he will make every attempt to heed this call.

Representative Hall has an opportunity to lead this body with fairness, respect, and a deep commitment to the values we hold dear. His leadership should ensure that the House remains a place where diverse perspectives are valued, and the best ideas rise to the top for the benefit of all Michiganders.

But above all, we must remember that our work is not about us; it's about the people who send us here. It is about working families struggling to make ends meet, the small business owner facing rising costs, and the child who deserves a better education. It is about communities who have longed for increased funding for their essential services, roads worthy of the cars we build here, and opportunities for those who seek it. Let us work, through thoughtful leadership and genuine collaboration, to ensure our actions reflect the needs and aspirations of those we represent.

It was 44 years ago that a humble peanut farmer from Georgia turned President reminded us of the unique journey we have as a democracy.

‘We know that democracy is always an unfinished creation. Each generation must renew its foundations. Each generation must rediscover the meaning of this hallowed vision in the light of its own modern challenges.’

This is our moment to rediscover the meaning of democracy in light of our own challenges.

This is a moment where our deeds must meet our dialogue. If we truly are committed to restoring trust in our institutions, building confidence in our state, and aspiring to be the best place to raise a family, it begins by believing in a better politics that puts people first.

It is in the spirit of building a better Michigan, rooted in consensus and collaboration, that I second the nomination of Representative Matt Hall as the next Speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives.

Let us come together to build a politics of possibilities for all Michiganders.”

The question being on the election of a Speaker,

The roll of the House was called by the Assistant Clerk and the members voted as follows:

The Clerk announced that Rep. Hall, having received a majority vote of the members present and voting, was duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Speaker Hall:

“First of all, thank you, Nancy DeBoer, that was an incredible nomination and I appreciate Leader Puri. I’ve done that and it’s not easy to do, seconding the nomination. I did that for Speaker Tate, and you did it for me, so thank you. That’s how we keep this institution together is we respect those traditions. We’ve been able to keep all of that Washington DC stuff out of here, so I appreciate you and your members honoring that, it works both ways, so I appreciate that.

Obviously, Meagan is here, my wife, and Kyler is here. Thank the two of you for being so supportive of me over the last few years. There’s a lot of family here and we certainly recognize all the sacrifices that all of you have made and continue to make. It is a tough job, they have been pretty critical of me, as Nancy said, critical of Meagan and it has been hard. We signed up to serve the people of Michigan, and it’s tough, but we’ve done it. I give all the family members here so much credit for all sacrifices each of you make, because it is hard. Your family members are away, but they are doing important work serving your communities, so thank you to all of the family members here today, I applaud you. My parents are here, Charles and Jane Hall, so thank you for being here, I was happy you could join us.

I also wanted to thank Governor Snyder for being here. I think that Governor Snyder was kind of Elon Musk before that was cool. A guy ran to reinvent government and bring entrepreneurship to government before that was cool. I was thinking about it and Elon has DOGE and you had Dog Years. You were ahead of your time, and you have been a great mentor to me and to our caucus, thank you for being here.

I worked for Terri Land when she was Secretary of State, so thank you for being here Terri. I learned a lot from Terri, and Bill Schuette, the former attorney general who is here, thank you. Not as many people know this but, Former State Representative Jerry Vander Roest. Thank you, Jerry, for being here. I worked for all three of these people as I came up before I ran for office. I learned a lot from each of you and it means a lot to me that you are all here today so thank you.

I know there are a lot of former elected officials here, people that I served with in this chamber. I looked at this chart and I am number eight in seniority now. I’ll probably never catch Curt VanderWall, he’s number one and welcome back Curt after your health situation, we’re happy to have you. I said, ‘I really need your vote, can you be there?’ and he said, ‘I’ll be there’ so thank you Curt. I’ll just say that you think about that, Tyrone Carter, Angela Witwer, myself, and Joe Tate. There were a lot of great people that served with us over the years, and I invited many of them back. It just meant so much to me going through this with all of you as we built this together. It meant a lot to me, and I am happy you could be here. We are going to rebuild this again and make you proud, so I am happy you could join us.

There are a lot of other people here that worked with us along the way to help us win this majority back and it was hard. There was a pretty broken party when we started and not a lot of people who thought we could win, so we had to go and work hard to do it, so I just want to tell everyone here that was a part of that, we did it, you were all a part of it, and this is for you. We did it and I hope that you share in this today, this has been a long time coming, bringing balance back to state government.”

This requirement shall apply to amendments in the first and second degree and no further degree shall be permitted.

Third Reading.

Rule 48. (1) Bills may not be considered for final passage without having been considered on Second Reading. Bills considered on Second Reading may be placed on Third Reading for immediate passage by motion and concurrence of a majority of the Members elected and serving.

Rule 53. No bill shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title. MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS IN GENERAL

Stating Motions.

Rule 54. When a motion is made, and when necessary under the rules, seconded, it shall be stated by the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer may require that a motion be submitted in writing. The motion shall be entered upon the House Journal, together with the name of the Member making it, unless withdrawn upon request of the Member making it and by a majority vote of those voting, or ruled out of order by the Presiding Officer. If in writing, the motion shall be read aloud by the Clerk before being debated.

Procedural Motions.

Rule 55. Except as otherwise provided in the rules, all procedural motions, including, for purposes of this rule, those for immediate effect, record roll call, and division, shall be made orally after recognition by the Presiding Officer.

When in Possession; Withdrawal.

Rule 56. After a motion has been stated by the Presiding Officer, or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment upon request of the Member making it and by a majority vote of those voting.

Precedence of Motions.

Rule 57. (1) When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received except:

- (a) To adjourn;
- (b) To take a recess;
- (c) To reconsider;
- (d) To lay on the table;
- (e) For the previous question;
- (f) To postpone to a day certain;
- (g) To commit;
- (h) To amend; and
- (i) To postpone indefinitely.

(2) Such motions shall take precedence in that order, and shall be decided by a majority vote of those Members voting, except the motion to postpone indefinitely and the motion to amend shall be decided by a majority vote of the Members elected and serving. When a recess is taken with a question pending, the consideration of the question shall be resumed upon reassembling unless otherwise determined. No motion to postpone to a day certain, or to commit, being decided shall be again allowed on the same day and at the same stage of the question. A motion to postpone indefinitely having been decided shall not be subject to reconsideration. When a bill is up for consideration at any stage of procedure, and a motion is made to postpone indefinitely, or to strike out all after the style clause, amendments shall be in order before taking a vote on any such motion.

Always in Order; Not Debatable.

Rule 58. (1) The following motions are not debatable:

- (a) Adjourn;
- (b) Call of the House;
- (c) Recess;

- (b) Make or give notice of a motion to reconsider;
- (c) Adjourn;
- (d) Recess; and
- (e) Raise a question of privilege.

Amendments to be Germane.

Rule 60. No independent or new proposition or new question shall be introduced under color of an amendment. All amendments must be germane to the main question. When the question of germaneness is raised, the Presiding Officer shall rule on the question.

Division of Question.

Rule 61. Any Member may call for a division of the question, and if supported by a majority vote of the Members voting, the question shall be divided if its components are so distinct that if one is taken away a substantive proposition shall remain. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

MOTIONS FOR THE PREVIOUS QUESTIONMethod of Ordering.

Rule 62. (1) The method of ordering the previous question shall be as follows: Any Member may move the previous question, and the motion shall apply to the pending question only. If the motion is seconded by at least ten Members, the Presiding Officer shall put the question of whether the main question shall be put. After the seconding of the motion for the previous question and prior to ordering the same, a Call of the House may be moved and ordered, but after ordering the previous question nothing shall be in order prior to the decision of the pending question, except:

- (a) Demands for the ayes and nays;
- (b) Points of order;
- (c) Appeals from the decision of the Presiding Officer; and
- (d) A motion to adjourn or to take a recess, which shall be decided without debate.

(2) The effect of the previous question shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a direct vote upon the pending question. If the House shall refuse to order the pending question, the consideration on the subject shall be resumed.

MOTION TO RECONSIDERMotions for Reconsideration.

Rule 63. Any Member may move for a reconsideration of any question on the same or next succeeding legislative session day, if the bill or resolution is still in the possession of the House. Reconsideration of the vote by which a bill passed the House, or any proposition requiring a vote in excess of a majority of Members elected and serving, shall require a majority of the Members elected and serving. The motion to reconsider shall not be renewed the same day. A motion to reconsider any question shall not be subject to any subsidiary motion except to postpone for the day. The question of passing a bill the objections of the Governor notwithstanding shall not be reconsidered more than twice.

Notice of Reconsideration.

Rule 64. A notice of intention to move for a reconsideration of any bill that is still in the possession of the House may be given by any Member from the floor or in writing to the Clerk, with the support of one-third of the Members elected and serving, which shall be immediately announced by the Clerk, entered upon the House Journal, and the bill shall be retained by the Clerk of the House until after the time expires during which under Rule 63 the motion can be made, either by the Member serving such notice or by any other Member. Notice of intention shall not be in order on the day preceding a recess of one week or more or at a time which would prevent passage of the bill. No other Members may move for reconsideration on the same day that notice of intention to move for a reconsideration is given.

MOTIONS FOR CALLS OF THE HOUSEOrdering Calls of the House.

Rule 65. Calls of the House may be ordered upon motion by a majority of the Members present but the total vote in favor of such Call shall not be less than fifteen in number. A motion for a Call of the House shall not be entertained after the previous question is ordered.

Rule 66. After a Call of the House is ordered, the doors shall be closed and the Members shall not be allowed to leave the floor of the House without permission of the Speaker or the Speaker's designees. The roll of the House shall be called by the Clerk. The Sergeant at Arms may be dispatched after the absentees. In such case, a list of the absentees shall be furnished by the Clerk to the Sergeant at Arms, who shall deliver such absentees at the bar of the House with all possible speed. In case the Sergeant at Arms shall require assistance in addition to the regularly appointed Assistant Sergeants at Arms of the House, during an authorized Call of the House, the Speaker or Presiding Officer may, upon motion, depute any person properly qualified, including any member of the Michigan State Police, as a special assistant Sergeant at Arms. The House may proceed to business under a Call of the House pending the arrival of any absentees.

APPEALSForm of Question.

Rule 67. On all appeals from the decisions of the Presiding Officer, the question shall be decided by a majority vote of those voting, by a roll call vote. A tie vote sustains the judgment of the Presiding Officer.

Tabling Appeals.

Rule 68. An appeal may be laid on the table but shall not carry with it the subject matter before the House at the time such appeal is taken.

Amendment or Suspension of Rules.

Rule 69. (1) Any rule of the House may be amended by a majority vote of the Members elected and serving. No rule shall be amended unless the amendment is in writing and in possession of the House five days prior to its consideration. A rule may be suspended by a vote of three-fifths of the Members shown to be present by the House Journal entries.
