4       Whereas, The Mayaguez Incident, which ended on May 15th, 1975,
5 is often regarded as the last U.S. military action in the Vietnam
6 War, during which some of the final service members whose names are 7 engraved on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., were 8 killed; and

1   disrespect upon their return home due to the controversial nature
2   of the war, rather than being honored and celebrated for their 3   sacrifice. Furthermore, many Vietnam veterans have struggled to 4   readjust to civilian life, suffering from a variety of physical and 5   psychological conditions; and

6           Whereas, More Vietnam veterans have died from suicide than 7   died in combat, with recent estimates nearing 100,000; and

8           Whereas, It is our duty as residents of the state of Michigan 9   and citizens of the United States to hold in high regard those who 10   have fought in the armed forces, to honor the sacrifice of those 11   who gave their lives, and to pass along to the next generation an 12   honor for all who have served their country; now, therefore, be it

13          Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 14   this legislative body commemorate the 50th anniversary of the end
