CIVILIAN DEFENSE

Act 203 of 1951

AN ACT to supplement the laws of this state with respect to civilian defense; to prescribe the powers and duties of certain state officials with respect thereto; and to prescribe the oath to be taken by certain persons in connection with civilian defense.

History: 1951, Act 203, Imd. Eff. June 14, 1951

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

30.201-30.203 Repealed. 1953, Act 154, Imd. Eff. June 2, 1953.

Compiler's Notes: The repealed sections authorized regional defense areas and acceptance by the governor of grants, services, and equipment for civil defense.

30.204 Civilian defense organization; persons prohibited from employment; loyalty oath, form.

Sec. 4.

No person shall be employed or associated in any capacity in any civilian defense organization established under this act who advocates a change by force or violence in the constitutional form of the government of the United States or in this state or the overthrow of any government in the United States by force or violence, or who has been convicted of or is under indictment or information charging any subversive act against the United States. Each person who is appointed to serve in an organization for civilian defense shall, before entering upon his duties, take an oath, in writing, before a person authorized to administer oaths in this state, which oath shall be substantially as follows:

"I, ..., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Michigan, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.

"And I do further swear (or affirm) that I do not advocate, nor am I a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the government of the United States or of this state by force or violence; and that during such time as I am a member of the (name of civilian defense organization) I will not advocate nor become a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the government of the United States or of this state by force or violence."
