MICHIGAN REVISED UNIFORM LIMITED PARTNERSHIP ACT (EXCERPT) Act 213 of 1982

449.1304 Liability of person erroneously but in good faith believing he or she is limited partner.

Sec. 304.

- (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a person who makes a contribution to a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that he or she has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not a general partner in the enterprise and is not bound by its obligations by reason of making the contribution, receiving distributions from the enterprise, or exercising any rights of a limited partner, if, on ascertaining the mistake, the person does either of the following:
- (1) Causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership, certificate of amendment, or restated certificate of limited partnership to be executed and filed.
- (2) Withdraws from future equity participation in the enterprise. With respect to any limited partnership for which a certificate of limited partnership has been filed, the withdrawal may be accomplished by executing and filing with the office of the administrator a certificate declaring withdrawal under this section.
- (b) A person who makes a contribution of the kind described in subsection (a) is liable as a general partner to any third party who transacts business with the enterprise: (i) before the person withdraws and an appropriate certificate is filed to show withdrawal or (ii) before an appropriate certificate is filed to show the person's status as a limited partner and, in the case of an amendment, after expiration of the 60-day period for filing an amendment relating to the person as a limited partner under section 202, but in either case only if the third party actually believed in good faith that the person was a general partner at the time of the transaction.
