

BIDDERS ON PUBLIC WORKS (EXCERPT)
Act 170 of 1933

123.506 Review of decision of public officers.

Sec. 6. Any person feeling himself aggrieved at the determination of any such officer, board, commission, committee or department shall have the right of appeal by mandamus, certiorari or other proper remedy to the supreme court of the state of Michigan, or in any proper case to any circuit court having jurisdiction.

History: 1933, Act 170, Imd. Eff. June 28, 1933;—CL 1948, 123.506.