

UNIFORM INTERSTATE FAMILY SUPPORT ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 310 of 1996

PART 1

552.1201 Tribunal; personal jurisdiction over nonresident.

Sec. 201. In a proceeding to establish, enforce, or modify a support order or to determine parentage, a tribunal of this state may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident individual or the individual's guardian or conservator if any of the following are true:

- (a) The individual is personally served with citation, summons, or notice within this state.
- (b) The individual submits to the jurisdiction of this state by consent, by entering a general appearance, or by filing a responsive document having the effect of waiving a contest to personal jurisdiction.
- (c) The individual resided with the child in this state.
- (d) The individual resided in this state and provided prenatal expenses or support for the child.
- (e) The child resides in this state as a result of the individual's acts or directives.
- (f) The individual engaged in sexual intercourse in this state and the child may have been conceived by that act of intercourse.
- (g) The individual asserted parentage in the parentage registry maintained in this state.
- (h) There is another basis consistent with the constitutions of this state and the United States for the exercise of personal jurisdiction.

History: 1996, Act 310, Eff. June 1, 1997.

552.1203 Receipt of evidence and discovery from another state; applicability of procedural and substantive law.

Sec. 203. A tribunal of this state exercising personal jurisdiction over a nonresident under section 201 may apply section 328 to receive evidence from another state and section 332 to obtain discovery through a tribunal of another state. In all other respects articles III to VII do not apply, and the tribunal shall apply this state's procedural and substantive law, including the rules on choice of law other than those established by this act.
