339.2405.amended Application for license by corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity; designation and responsibilities of qualifying officer; age and license requirements; suspension, revocation, or denial of license.

Sec. 2405. (1) If a license is applied for by a corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity, the applicant shall designate 1 of its officers, partners, members, or managing agent as a qualifying officer who, upon taking and passing the examination, and upon meeting all other requirements of this article, is entitled to a license to act for the corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity. The qualifying officer shall also obtain and maintain a license under this article as an individual. The qualifying officer shall be responsible for exercising the supervision or control of the building or construction operations necessary to secure full compliance with this article and the rules promulgated under this article. A license shall not be issued to a corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity unless each partner, trustee, director, officer, member, and a person exercising control is at least 18 years of age, and meets the requirements for a license under this article other than those relating to knowledge and experience. If an individual licensee is also a qualifying officer, the individual's name and license number shall be listed on any license issued to the individual as a qualifying officer. In the case of a license issued under this subsection, each officer, partner, member, or managing agent, whether or not he or she is the qualifying officer, shall provide a copy of his or her operator's license or state personal identification card to the department for use by the department only for identification purposes. A licensee granted inactive status under section 2404b is not eligible to serve as a qualifying officer.

(2) The license of a corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity shall be suspended when a license or license application of a qualifying officer, partner, trustee, director, officer, member, or a person exercising control of the corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity is suspended, revoked, or denied. The suspension shall remain in force until the board determines that the disability created by the suspension, revocation, or denial has been removed.

(3) A suspension, revocation, or denial of a license of an individual shall suspend, revoke, or deny any other license held or applied for by that individual issued under this article. A suspension, revocation, or denial of a license by the department shall suspend, revoke, or deny any other license held or applied for under this article by the qualifying officer of a corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, or other entity whose license is suspended, revoked, or denied.

(4) If the qualifying officer of a licensee ceases to be its qualifying officer, the license is suspended. However, upon request, the department may permit the license to remain in force for a reasonable time to permit the qualification of a new qualifying officer.
