Sec. 214. (1) If an individual who participates in the conduct of the affairs of a domestic credit union is charged in any information, indictment, warrant, or complaint by a county, state, or federal authority with the commission of, or participation in, a crime that involves dishonesty or breach of trust, the director may, by written notice served on the individual, suspend the individual from office or prohibit the individual from further participation in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the domestic credit union. The director shall also serve a copy of the suspension or prohibition on the domestic credit union. (2) If a judgment of conviction with respect to an offense described in subsection (1) is entered against an individual, after the judgment is not subject to further appellate review, the director may issue an order removing the individual from office or prohibiting the individual from further participation in the conduct of the affairs of any domestic credit union. If an order described in this subsection is issued, the individual must obtain the prior consent of the director before participating in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of any domestic credit union.

(3) An individual who is removed from office under subsection (2) is removed when a copy of the order is served on the domestic credit union.

(4) A finding of not guilty or other disposition of the charge does not preclude the director from instituting proceedings to suspend or remove an individual from office or to prohibit further participation in the affairs of a domestic credit union under section 212(1), (2), or (3).
