

SAVINGS AND LOAN ACT OF 1980 (EXCERPT)
Act 307 of 1980

491.212 Mailing of notice or communication.

Sec. 212. When a notice or communication is required or permitted by this act to be given by mail, the notice or communication shall be mailed, except as otherwise provided in this act, to the person to whom the notice or communication is directed at the address designated by the person for that purpose or, if an address is not designated, at the person's last known address. The notice or communication is given when deposited, with postage prepaid, in a post office or official depository under the exclusive care and custody of the United States postal service. The mailing shall be registered, certified, or other first class mail except if otherwise provided in this act.

History: 1980, Act 307, Eff. Jan. 1, 1981.
