

CONSERVATION REHABILITATION CAMP FOR MALE DELINQUENT YOUTH (EXCERPT)
Act 229 of 1962

803.317 Conservation rehabilitation camp for male delinquent youth; establishment; operations; program; trainees; camp facilities.

Sec. 17. The state department of social welfare shall establish and operate on publicly-owned land a conservation rehabilitation camp for male delinquent youth committed to that department.

The state department of social welfare shall be responsible for the rehabilitation program which shall include academic education, vocational training and personal and vocational counseling by qualified personnel.

The state department of social welfare may select as trainees male youth who have been committed to the department and whose rehabilitation will be furthered by this conservation education-training experience. Any person selected as a trainee shall remain in the custody of the department of social welfare.

In addition to any other amounts appropriated, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963 to the state department of social welfare the sum of $80,000.00, or as much thereof as may be necessary, for the construction and renovation of camp facilities.

In addition to any other amounts appropriated, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963 to the state department of social welfare the sum of $100,000.00, or as much thereof as may be necessary, for the operation of camp facilities herein provided. Any expenses incurred by any state department at the request of the state department of social welfare acting under the authority of this act shall be reimbursed from funds appropriated under this act.
